Smile-A-Minute

Hubby — Don't you think your gown is out a little too low, my dear?
Wife — Not at all. Why it's made in the height of fashion.

Brown — What made you start clapping your hands when that woman stepped on your foot in the crowded car?
Barlow — I was doing, and I thought my wife was giving a musical and was signaling that it was time to applaud.

Bluffs — I wonder why rich folks so often marry rich folks?
Obfusius — Because they have so much interest in common.

"Why are you so sure there is no life on Mars?"
"Well, for one thing, they have never asked the United States for a loan."

She has been on the board of the Seven Eastern Women's colleges and has served as chairman of the Detroit Vassar club's scholarship committee. She is also a member of the women's board of Alma college.

She was elected to the Bradford board for a term of nine years. The college, one of the oldest institutions in the country for women's higher education, was founded in 1803 as Bradford Academy. It is now a two-year liberal arts college for women.

B'ham WNFGA to Make Floral Arrangements

The flower arrangement group of the Birmingham branch of the WNFGA met Monday at the home of the treasurer, Mrs. Nelson Miles of Westwood drive in Bloomfield Village.

Business of the day, conducted by Mrs. George Lindsey, chairman, was to make plans for their responsibility to the Feb. 13 meeting of the Michigan division of the WNFGA at Oakland Hills country club.

This group is in charge of making all floral arrangements for this large annual meeting.

Already the members have started forcing spring branches in their homes which they hope to combine with spring blooms such as daffodils in making their arrangement combinations.

Bloomfield Village school all-purpose room was the scene Monday evening of the January meeting of Bloomfield Village school PTA.

Mrs. Leland Beers, president, conducted the business meeting. Copies of the bylaws were given to the parents and they were reviewed by the group in preparation for vote for approval of the revisions at the Feb. 3 meeting.

The nominating committee for next year's officers was named. They are Mrs. Fred Adams, Mrs. George McArthur and Mrs. Carter Bowman.

Mableton Lovell has been appointed to represent Bloomfield Village on the plans review committee under the direction of the Citizen's committee of Birmingham.

Dr. Dwight B. Ireland, superintendent of Birmingham schools and four members of the board of education spoke on "The Structure of the Birmingham Public School System."

Fourth grade room mothers served refreshments following the meeting.

Mrs. James Couzens II, of Amberly road was hostess Monday to 24 members of St. Mary's guild of Holy Name church.

Purpose of the luncheon meeting was to make final plans for the bridge luncheon to be Jan. 24 by a group of St. Mary's guild women.

The purpose of the contributions is for the fund for playground equipment for Holy Name school.

Following the meeting, the women toured the William Vasa funeral home in Royal Oak.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Judd and daughters, Nancy and Susan, of N. Glangary road spent Dec. 18 to Jan. 8 at their Florida home in Miami Beach.

While there they visited their many friends and attended the Orange bowl football game.

Their usual fun in the sun was curtailed by inclement weather but having lived there previously, they were happy to ignore the weather and enjoy friends whom they hadn't seen in a long time.

Mr. and Mrs. Max B. Tunnickliffe
