

Couple Spends 6 Days Visiting the Bahamas

Dr. and Mrs. John Esslinger of W. Orchard Hill drive have just returned home after six days in the Bahamas.

They made their headquarters at the French Leave resort on Eleuthera island. The Esslingers found the island a very beautiful and restful place. Many hours were spent beach-combing for interesting shells to bring back to their children.

Swimming in the ocean surf and motoring along the coast were other highlights of their vacation. They especially enjoyed driving a little Morris Minor convertible English style, through the picturesque countryside.

Home again after three weeks on the West Coast, are the Vincent McCabes of Henahawk road. They flew to Los Angeles, Calif., on Dec. 6, for the 60th wedding anniversary reception honoring Mrs. McCabe's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Rauch of San Diego. While there they also visited Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Johnson, Mrs. McCabe's parents.

Their next stop was Saratoga, Calif., where they visited relatives, the J. E. Stantons. Then on to Kansas City, Mo., where they spent Christmas night through the 29th with McCabe's parents, the Vincent McCabes, Sr., before returning home.

The Richard Smiths of North Adams road entertained 40 guests at an open house during the holidays. Upon their return, Mary Ann Meier, a niece, from Monroe, Mich., spent a week.

The Osage branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association held its first meeting of the new year at Beautiful Savior Lutheran church on North Adams road, Jan. 6.

Mrs. Walter Seibel of Walnut Hill drive gave an illustrated talk on "Decorating Highlights in the Home," which left everyone very home conscious.

A tea followed with Mrs. Wilfred Bozier and Mrs. Oscar Oldberg pouring.

Many from the North Adams area attended Birmingham town hall last Thursday and heard Dr. Robert M. Hutchins, president of the Ford foundation and former president of the University of Chicago.

His talk, "Where is Education going," gave many much to think about. Among those enjoying the doctor's talk were Mrs. Edward Hopper, Mrs. Edward Heck, Mrs. John Haight, Mrs. Richard Smith, all of Hickory Heights.

The topic "The Responsibility of Parents in Childhood Sex Education" drew a large group of parents at the Harlan I.T.A., Jan. 8.

Three of the area's well-known pediatricians, Dr. Frederick M. Adams, Dr. Charles F. Payton and Dr. Philip J. Laux, Jr., conducted a panel discussing the subject. A "swimming party" was decided upon by the I.T.A. as their first fund raising campaign to be from 8 to 9 p.m. on Jan. 31 at Derby junior high.

The tickets may be obtained at Harlan school. Edward Hopper is chairman of this venture.

All parents were pleased to learn that traffic lights will be installed on Adams road in front of the school, Jan. 15.

The John Kinseys of Hylane drive enjoyed "Most Happy Fella" so much in New York two years that they planned a party including 12 couples, to again see the play.

Before joining the group downtown they entertained houseguests Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Charlston of St. Clair Shores, and Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Jaques of Saginaw at cocktails in Detroit.

Enjoying the play and the evening afterward were the Robert Vandryls, the Burton Lords, and the Leon Miles, of Birmingham.

From Franklin village were the Leroy Rumbaughs and the Warren Bushmans and from Grosse Pointe were the F. B. Van Deusin.

The A. F. Vonderhaars of Dover court announce the birth of a daughter, Karin Jeanne, born Dec. 11. The Vonderhaars have two other children, Robbie, 4, and Jim, 14 months.

Newcomers to Yorktown lane are Mr. and Mrs. Jay W. Bond of Detroit. They have two children, Jay, 12, and Cheryl, 7, who will be attending Derby junior high and Harlan when the new semester begins. Bond is manager with Peninsula Chemical Co. in Warren, Mich. Golf is one of the sports that hold the Bonds' interest.
