

A Marquette Coed: Tomboy, Pixie, Demure Young Woman

The Marquette girl is a gamine climbing about in trees.

She can have riotous fun just throwing a pillow around.

And she loves the wind in her hair and the sun toasting her skin.

Birmingham Lass Leads Varied Life At University

Carolyn M. Link, 851 S. Glenhurst, Birmingham, a junior in Marquette university's college of liberal arts, was the subject of a full-page photo feature in the Milwaukee school's semi-weekly paper, The Marquette Tribune, recently. These are the photographs as they appeared in the university's publication. Carolyn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Link.

For her sorority she'll work like a slave.

But when she comes down those stairs and she smiles at you, there's no one you'd rather be with.

Occasionally, she likes to be alone with herself and God.

It takes her hours to get ready for a date, and

Late at night, alone in her room, her eyes and love are forgotten and she be-

For every negative condition in human existence there also is a positive condition. A well, self-directed life may encounter numerous adversities, but the application of a courageous, indomitable will, uplifted and inspired by the desire to serve, eventually, wins. Victories thus obtained are wonderful.
