The Shakespeare Ciphers Examined

Nearly everyone who has read a play by Shakespeare knows that for centuries scholars have been trying, by various means, to prove that the immortal poetic dramas were, in reality, written by someone other than the theater-struck fellow from Stratford-on-Avon...

THIS PSEUDO-SCHOLARSHIP has been exercised for many, many years during which the most zealous could do was bring his shoulders and comment "Who the Jones?"...

Poems To Grow On

A child is bound to feel kinship with this collection of poems. Since it will seem to him more like some old friend than a new book...

HE IS ENCOURAGED to think beyond himself only in terms of his own experience in his own language; consequently, the overall tone is neither superior nor artificial...
