

Nettes Try Out New Organ For Friends at Their Home

A musical evening was spent recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Nette, 3200 E. Breckenridge, formerly of Derby road. The Nettes wanted to try out their new organ.

Derby road friends arriving with musical instruments under arm were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kirsh, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Oldani, Mr. and Mrs. George Peirce, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Stummer and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Foraker. Others enjoying dancing and a merriment in the playground were 12 foot Christmas tree was bright. Mr. and Mrs. William Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Weth, Mr. and Mrs. David Donnelly, Mrs. Harold Coots, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eddy and Mr. and Mrs. Leon bowl.

The guests noted, as they entered the family room, a jolly looking snowman standing beside another decorated tree peaking in on the festivities.

Welcomed newcomers to 1620 Grandfield road are Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. Funk and daughter, Elaine, 13 years old and Nancy, 11 years old from Cleveland, Ohio. Funk attended the Baltimore college of business in Maryland and is now employed as an accountant with the Chevrolet division of General Motors.

Both enjoy bridge as an evening pastime.

An annual brunch during the holidays was held recently by Mr. and Mrs. Robert McKenney, 845 Norwich. Those enjoying the delicious sherryed eggs and admiring the centerpiece of the table and a colorful "noel" table cloth were Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Gurley, Mr. and Mrs. George Both, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Lotera, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Doherty and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Brindle.

In the late afternoon the Alex Loteras, 855 Norwich, entertained the same group for a buffet supper.

Guest of honor for his fourth birthday party was Robbie Zinkle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Zinkle, 539 Witherbee. The motif Mrs. Zinkle carried out was the now popular Mickey Mouse and she served a fascinating "loopye" cake.

Children attending were Chris Monley, Tommy Schulte, Barb and Tom Trevillian, Peggy Ross, Webb Hatten, Ann and Larry Myltinger and David Fisher.

After games were played and ice cream and cake served, the boys and girls played with their favors of cars and dishes.

A combined Christmas party and bridge was held last week in the home of Mrs. Frank Seiburger, 164 Witherbee. To highlight the occasion, Mrs. Vocht served a flaming strawberry meringue torte and cranberry punch in carry out her color scheme of holiday decorations. Before playing bridge the women exchanged gifts.

Seated around the two tables were Mrs. Robert Sims, Mrs. Robert Welch, Mrs. Paul Nelson, Mrs. Ford Banes, Mrs. Charles Benson and Mrs. James Treve.

For the December meeting of the Grandfield Home Extension club, Mrs. Wilfred Dielman, president of the Meadow Lake garden club presented an interesting and inspirational program on "Decorating for Christmas."

Her demonstration included making center pieces and table arrangements and also making boxes for decorating packages.

Harold Day was winner of a centerpiece. To join the enjoyment, Mrs. Dielman offered her home for the meeting so that members might see the many beautiful decorations she had made for her own home.

Mrs. Richard Pippin and Mrs. Ralph Riley acted as co-hostesses.

If Trovton Manor residents are wondering who the little angels were singing Christmas carols last Sunday it was Brownie group #26. Under the direction of Betty Banes and Pamela Morgan brownies, Sherri Sue Smith, Wendy Mahan, Sharon Miner, Susan Banes and Mary Lippard toured the neighborhood for the second year with their festive singing.

The group returned to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ford Banes for hot chocolate and cookies.

Returning to their hometown of Grand Rapids for the Christmas holidays were Mr. and Mrs. Gorth Hawley, 910 Brooklawn, and children, Dennis, John, twin, Kathy and Cindy, Paul and baby Ward. While in Grand Rapids they were accompanied by Mrs. Hawley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Chase.

Trovton Manor Extension group celebrated their annual Christmas party Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Frank Seiburger.

Taking advantage of a recent lesson on making Christmas table arrangements, Mrs. Seiburger centered her red covered buffet table with holly greens and orna-

Events backed by a styrofoam base holding a fan of red tapers. While sipping punch served by the hostess, the ladies enjoyed an evening of bridge and scrabble. Christmas gifts were exchanged.

The next meeting will be Jan. 15 at the home of Mrs. Donald Mosley, 1856 Witherbee.

Wendy Mahan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Mahan, 829 Brooklawn, celebrated her ninth birthday Saturday afternoon by inviting her brownie troop to be guests at the movie "Adventures of Robinson Crusoe". The girls returned to Mahans for Christmas tree shaped ice cream and cake.

Guests were Sherri Sue Smith, Mary Lippard, Christine Sparks, Susan Grueschow, Susan Banes, Susan Beard, Susan Dieterich, Becky Adams, Sharon Miner, Jo Ann Gleser, Minna Morze, Susan Cramer and Wendy's cousin, Linda Gibble.

Mr. and Mrs. William Stone and 1-year-old son, Bill, returned recently from a business trip to New York. While there, they stayed with Mr. and Mrs. Meade Stone, parents of Stone in Garden City, Long Island. Mrs. Stone enjoyed taking in some shows and shopping while Stone was busily engaged at work with McGraw-Hill publications in New York.

A happy addition in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Kintworth, 804 Brooklawn, Trovton Manor, is Nancy Elizabeth born Dec. 21. Mrs. Kintworth arrived home from the hospital on Christmas day giving her other daughter, Cathie, 2 1/2 years-old, an extra special gift. Cathie and Kintworth had spent the earlier part of the day at Mr. and Mrs. Milton Kintworth's in Rochester.

Kintworth's father, Phil Kintworth, Sr., was on hand from Lansing to greet his newest grand-daughter.

"BEAT THE CLERK"

A NEW AND STIMULATING GAME from the Fun Department of the Mc-B Company.

It backs Monopoly off the market because REAL MONEY IS USED, any number of people can play and everyone (?) WINS!!

GAME STARTS FRIDAY, JAN. 3rd, 8:00 A. M.
(When it stops depends on you)

THE PLAYERS: Any number—odd or even.

THE OBJECT: To see how much you can get for how little—or vice versa (the part the clerks will play).

THE WINNER: Anyone smart enough to "BEAT THE CLERK".

THE LOSER: Perish the thought!

THE START: All a player has to do is walk into our shop with a pocket full of dough or unimpeachable credit references and an alert and agile mind. (Also a desire to win; that is, to save, some money).

THE RULES:

- The game CANNOT be played by telephone.
- Prizes WILL NOT be delivered (except in those cases where the winner insists).
- Prizes become the permanent property of the winner but will be redeemed by the company at NO MORE THAN 5% OF THE ORIGINAL COST (OUR COST).

THE PLAY: All items are marked at the regular retail price. Each has an established special price for the game. Your problem is to "dicker" the price (or the clerk) to the lowest possible price.

SPECIAL RULE: If the clerk flounders or a player turns on too much heat the BOSS will be asked to arbitrate (or maybe even dicker a bit).

NOTE: If this game is successful we will get a chance to go shopping again—in Persia, maybe, or Pontiac.

BEAT THE CLERK, IF YOU CAN.
(Some people would call this game a SALE)
