

Bloomfield Village

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Cameron, recent residents of Yarmouth, now of Bingham lane, and children Lynn, David and twins Cathy and Carl, spent last weekend at Mad Creek club on Mitchell's bay on the Chatam, Canada skating and ice fishing.

They enjoyed perfect skating weather and were thrilled with the large catch of perch, bass and trout.

Mr. and Mrs. Cameron leave tomorrow for two weeks in Naples, Fla.

They will spend Friday and Saturday nights with Mr. and Mrs. Ray Carner, formerly of Bingham road, now of Coral Gables, Fla.

Neighbors and friends will be glad to know that Mr. Ralph R. Nordyke of N. Glenhurst road returned to his home from the hospital Jan. 15 and is enjoying a rapid recovery from surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. Palmer E. Hollinger of Yarmouth road entertained Sunday evening at cocktails and buffet supper.

Guests were the Charles Wiggins, John Emmets, Road Jones, Paul Hymans, Vincent Van Fleet, Frank Remond, Donald Hogg, Charles Durycue, 559 Watkins, Kenneth Sutors, Mrs. Emory DeNadze, Henry Temple, Raymond and mother and Mrs. Marie Wohl.

Arthur "Skip" Dowd, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Dowd of Overhill road, a sophomore at Michigan State university is finding the ROTC program to be of great interest to him and has so enthusiastically participated that he was recently one of the top five per cent of the several hundred in his company to receive an "A" in Chatam, Canada skating and ice fishing.

Junior Woman's Fashion-Bridge Set for Wednesday

In preparation for their Jan. 29th benefit fashion bridge, Birmingham Junior Women's club members gathered Monday at the home of Mrs. Carl Stewart for modeling tips under the direction of Mrs. Ed Chadik.

Leisure fashions will be shown by the Village store along with ski togs from a Ferndale store. To be modeled are such items as velvet pants, silk and satin blouses, tweed Beremuda's, embroidered wool, cotton and velvet, tweed slacks, parkas, glamour gams and skating skirts.

Flowers will be from Parmenters and music will be supplied by recorded stereophonic tapes.

Carmel Hall Plans Dinner Dance

The Carmel Hall auxiliary plans a dinner Saturday, Feb. 15, at 7:30 p.m., to benefit the hall. Red and white roses will decorate the dining room and strolling musicians will entertain diners.

Among local members of the auxiliary are Mrs. Donald Altrusa, Mrs. Thomas Boosen, and Mrs. James Mog. Tickets for the dinner can be obtained at Carmel hall.

Household goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

First Aid Demonstrations Given to Extension Group

The January meeting of the Troyton Manor Extension group was Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Donald Mosley, 1856 Witherde.

Subject of the evening, first aid, was presented by Mrs. Evalyn Gabert and Mrs. William Talbot and covered the many common home medical emergencies. The new and approved method of artificial respiration also was demonstrated.

First aid kits for both the home and auto were shown and each member received a list of basic equipment which should go into these kits.

Fire prevention was discussed and several excellent ideas came out of the discussion. One of these was that each family hold a home fire drill for their own children, pointing out ways of escape and self preservation.

Plans were made for the February meeting which will have as its co-chairmen Mrs. Franklin Hens and Mrs. Anson Hedgcock.

An evening of cocktails and a friendly gathering took place after the holiday rush by Mr. and Mrs. William Christy, 971 Brookdown. Participating in the evening's fun were Mr. and Mrs. William Jacob, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. William Dye, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Benson, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Loewler, sister of Mrs. Christy from Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. Roland McNatt of Rochester, Mich.

Mrs. Christy used a color scheme of gold and pink on her table. The tablecloth was gold metallic.

First birthday parties are an exciting event for a child and Ricky Swiler was no exception when he was an eager host Wednesday afternoon at a luncheon birthday party for three small friends.

Mr. and Mrs. William Dye, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Loewler, sister of Mrs. Christy from Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. Roland McNatt of Rochester, Mich. were the guests.

The monthly meeting of the Troyton Manor Homeowners association was Jan. 11 at the home of Robert Distler, 88 Brookdown. Members discussed problems concerning the association and planned the association's election which will be tonight at Derby Junior high school at 8:15 p.m.

James Carey of Witherde road will be guest speaker and will talk what it means to its residents.

Present for the discussion were Mrs. Phil Kintworth, Mrs. George Franden, Charles Hooker, Leo Clougherty, Rutherford Hayes, Jr., Charles Penninger, and George Whitehead.

Mrs. Thomas Schulte, 1574 Witherde, entertained one of her bridge groups recently.

Members present were Mrs. Robert Ball, Mrs. Douglas Bain, Mrs. Lawrence Perry, Mrs. Myron Fisher, Mrs. George Seay and Mrs. Phil Brockway. Substitute for the evening was Mrs. Vernon Doering.

Mrs. Leo Cass of Witherde road entertained some of her friends Thursday night for a dessert bridge.

Attending were Mrs. John Darden, Mrs. Roger Cleary, Mrs. Donald Hibbert, Mrs. Grandville Harker, Mrs. James Adams, Mrs. Robert Kaufman and Mrs. Robert Distler.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lucien Har-corp., in their public relations department.

In their free time the Davisons enjoy do-it-yourself projects and are sports car enthusiasts. Davison is a member of the Sports Car club of America. Both enjoy an evening of bridge.

W. N. Brown from Yazon, Miss., has been the houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sims of Witherde road this past week.

Brown especially enjoyed time he was able to spend with his grandsons Gordon and Greg.

Thetas to Celebrate Founder's Day

Mrs. Edgar D. Harder, district Alumnae president of Kappa Alpha Theta, will be the main speaker at the group's 85th year of founding.

Luncheon will be served at Orchard Lake Country club Jan. 29 at 12:30 p.m. Founder's Day arrangements are under the direction of Mrs. Bliss Bowman, Mrs. F. R. Roberts, anniversaries, guests, births, parties are all new—the society editor also them.
