

Bigelows Return Home From Florida Vacation

The Fred E. Bigelows of North Adams road are home again after enjoying the last month in the sunny south. Their vacation began Dec. 15, when they flew to Miami, Fla., leaving the snow and ice behind.

While there they made their headquarters at the Kenilworth hotel. Many hours were spent basking in the sun and swimming in the picturesque hotel pool.

Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Greenwood Grosse Pointe Woods motored to Florida to spend a few days with the Bigelows before going on to Nassau. Another friend, Miss Romana Wright of Dearborn, also spent some time with them before their return home Jan. 9.

The Bruce Hathaways of Oak Hill drive are back home after visiting their daughter and son-in-law, the Earl A. Russells, Jr., of the former Donna Hathaway. Their two weeks were busy taking in the dog races in Hollywood, dining at famous restaurants, visiting night clubs, and enjoying the ocean.

One of the "highlights" was a trip to Dania, where they saw the boat of Jal-Alai, better known as Hi-Il, at the Dania Hill pavilion. The game is very popular with the Mexicans, Spaniards and Italians, and originated in the Basque provinces of Spain.

Chicago, Ill., are playing on cement walls at the base of an arena. Hi-Il is played with a paddle and ball, with each player wearing a paddle strapped to his arm. The game is very fast and is played like handball. A player can throw a ball further than a major league can hit a baseball.

The Hathaways are planning a second trip to Florida sometime in February.

Houseguests at the William H. Walters of Brethly drive during the week of New Year's were their daughter and son-in-law, the Clarence Walters of Toccoa Falls, Ga.

The Walters are both attending Toccoa Falls Bible college. Walters will graduate this spring, while Mrs. Walters has one more year before her graduation.

A houseguest at the Robert Kelo residence on Centre road during five days of the holidays was Misako Miyamoto of Tokyo, Japan.

She arrived in the United States in September and is a student at Merrill Palmer school in Detroit. When asked what she would like most for Christmas, her reply was, to stay with an American family with small children. The Kelos and their five children were chosen from her kindergarten class at Eastover school to help her celebrate her birthday on Saturday. Joining in the games and the ice cream and cake that followed were Lawrence, Bill, Simmons, Cindy Belicki, Bill Bee, Linda Blanchard.

The Hackler family moved here from San Diego, Calif., a few months ago. They are originally from Detroit.

The Arthur Hughes are newcomers to Barnley drive. Their move was from Bay City, Mich. They have three children, Michael, 11, attending Derby junior high; Kathy, 10, a pupil at Harlan and Jimmy, 3.

Hughes is director of engineering at Ruhim Electric in Birmingham. Among their interests are skating and ham receivers.

New residents of Paddington road are the George Bairds of Pailo, Pa. Their children are Barbara, 5, attending Harlan school, and David, 3. Baird is associate director of engineering at Burroughs in Detroit.

Bridge and gardening are among their interests. Mrs. Baird is a graduate of Northwestern college while Baird attended Villanova university and University of Pennsylvania.
