Blue Velvet Gowns Worn By Attendants

Attendants in blue velvet gowns preceded Mary Catherine Whitting down the aisle of Holy Name church for her marriage Saturday morning to Alfred William Resetich. The Rev. Msgr. Eugene E. Padlock performed the 11 o'clock ceremony.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John George Whitting of Beckles, they wore matching flat Wing Lake road, Franklin, wore a wedding gown of ivory silk tulle and a white tulle train. Her veil was of fine mesh and she carried a bouquet of white flowers. Her bridesmaids wore a gown of white tulle with a white tulle train. The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Resetich of DePue, Ill., asked David Krupp to be best man. Seating the guests were Augustine Falouse, Daniel Robeck and Kevin Whitting.

THE LONG SLEEVES formed points over her hands and the full princess line skirt terminated in a court train. She completed her ensemble with a bow-hat made of matching lace which held her styled illusion veil.

Maid of honor was Brenda Whit... The new Mrs. Resetich changed her bridesmaids were Nancy to a black tulle suit trimmed in white. The groomsmen wore black velvet for her honeymoon. With their dresses styled with a quarter sleeves and scooped. They will reside in Birmingham.
