

S'field PTA Planning Skit For Meeting

SOUTHFIELD—A skit celebrating the 61st anniversary of the founding of the Parent-Teachers association will be the program at the Southfield area PTA meeting Feb. 11 at the Southfield high school auditorium.

Historians and members of each of the 11 PTA groups in Southfield will participate. The skit is entitled "PTA—Your Life in Marches By." It traces the history of the national organization followed by a local history with tableaux of each of the local groups. The oldest is East Southfield, founded in 1925, and the newest, Northbrook, 1957. National membership has reached 10,994,474 of which about 2,400 are from Southfield.

THE FOUNDERS DAY Presentation, life membership and distinguished service awards, and induction of guests will be woven into the skit. The suburban singers will also perform.

Working on final plans for the evening are Mrs. Charles L. Curtis, president of the Southfield area council of PTA, Mrs. Harold M. Henkle, vice-president, Mrs. William Henkle, secretary, and Mrs. Robert L. Coffey, publicity chairman.

Plans Started By Association

EAST SOUTHFIELD—East Southfield girl scout neighborhood association met last week at the home of Mrs. Alva Bricker, 2940 Lathrup. Fifteen leaders, members and committee mothers attended.

Plans are underway for a 100th Low celebration in March. All scout troops will take part.

Recently new business troop 1464 under the leadership of Margaret Crawford, first grade teacher and co-leader. Mrs. Collie McGregor, school secretary held an investiture ceremony at East Southfield school. Twenty-four 7-year-olds emerged as new brownies.

INTERMEDIATE GIRL scouts under the leadership of Mrs. Donald Baldwin are learning to roller skate at the Cliverson roller rink on Tuesday afternoons for the next 6 weeks.

Choosing Pictures Theme of Meeting

EAST SOUTHFIELD—How to choose pictures for the home and correct hanging of them was presented to "Anything Goes" session group Thursday evening by Mrs. James Penberthy at her home on Everett road.

An artist in her own right, Mrs. Penberthy displayed many of her own water color and oil paintings to the interested group.

Next month the lesson will be "Touring with East." The lesson will be presented by Mrs. Roy Baldwin and Mrs. Fredrick Henderson. Mrs. Baldwin will hostess the meeting at her home, 28716 Fairfax.

Important Meeting Planned on Zoning

LATHRUP—Carl Stapleton, chairman of Lathrup's Zoning Board Appeals asked the council Monday evening to provide an attorney and a secretary for the board's Feb. 5 meeting.

Stapleton told the council members that five of the eight scheduled items are of such importance that a shorthand secretary would be of great assistance, and although he did not anticipate any legal difficulties, the city attorney could help to keep all matters correct.

Zoning problems to be taken up by the board on Feb. 5 are the proposed beef restaurant, A & P store, post office, playground and three other items.

S'field Ambulance Considers Growing

SOUTHFIELD—The new ambulance service in Southfield township has had enough business since it was started three months ago to consider buying a second ambulance.

John Roark, manager of the concern at 1946 W. 10 Mile road, said the firm had two crews of two experienced men each, making the ambulance available 24 hours a day. Roark said the firm would take customers to any hospital, anywhere.

The company is owned by Al Bullock.

Lathrup Asks Time To Revise Contract

LATHRUP—City administrator Leonard Wachowski and city attorney Everett Hayes have asked the Southeastern Oakland County Rubbish authority for an extension of time in which to submit a new and revised contract for the disposal of Lathrup Village rubbish.

Mrs. Vogler Heads Drive

FRANKLIN—For the second consecutive year, Mrs. Edward Vogler of W. 14 Mile road in Bloomfield township is heading the Franklin Martyrs of Buses drive for polio funds.

As Franklin area chairman, Mrs. Vogler has appointed Mrs. Charles Hall of Wellington, Mrs. K. W. Griffin of Franklin Hills drive and Mrs. John E. Arner of S. Green road as her captains.

Mrs. Vogler stresses that contributions may be made at any time through the month of January or until Jan. 29, although Friday is the preferred light night, the possibility of bad weather and poor giving conditions for those few hours has altered the Franklin collection to extend over a longer period of time for the most results.

FRANKLIN—Students in Mrs. Gardiner's second and third grade combination class highlighted their studies on space by viewing a planetarium demonstration at the Cranbrook Institute of Science Tuesday afternoon.

The dining room, with its old pump and stool will offer some charm and unusual small antiques she has collected over the years. A customer's feeling will prevail in the living room where artistic handcraft items made by Mrs. Wilson or other well known artists will be exhibited on consignment and a gallery for original paintings.

Somewhere on her shingle, Mrs. Wilson says the name "Pates" will probably appear. It was an affectionate name her grandfather used to call her and has become her trademark.

Since this will be just a pastime for an energetic woman whose family has grown and who likes people, no formal announcement is set, it will just happen one day soon.

A Sunday night supper at the home of Mrs. Stewart on Scenic road is planned, this weekend to honor Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Howarth of Groves Pointe who will be leaving for the west coast. Fourteen guests are expected for the Godspeed.

Eighteen boys and five leaders Harold DeOrlow, Harold Dillow, Norman Kriesler, William Bunnell and Don Horton, competed in the day's events with Beaver patrol and the Planning Arrow patrol earning the top awards for sleds and scoutcraft skill. The Pioneer patrol was rated excellent for sled making and good in the over-all skills.

Steve DeOrlow assisted the Order of the Arrow soup kitchen which repeatedly served quantities of hot chicken soup to hundreds of famished scouts.

TROOP B-11 SET up its own kitchen with two Coleman stoves, dubbed "Kriesler's Kitchen," where vegetable soup and yards of hot dogs appeared along with gallons of hot cocoa.

This weekend Troop B-11 will have its winter paper drive plans are formulated for an overnight camping trip to the troop's site near Lapeer on Feb. 1 and 12.

Village Players Schedule Meeting

FRANKLIN—The year's first general meeting for the Village Players will be Jan. 31 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Green on Woodlawn road, 8:30 p.m.

Plans for the spring play will be revealed with the cast and committees to be announced.

Fourth-ranking state annual coal producers, Illinois had total production in 1957 of 45,310,000 tons, a gain of more than 10 per cent over 1954.

Engineers Frown On Relocation Of Lathrup Ditch

LATHRUP—City Administrator Lenora Wachowski told council members Monday evening that the firm of Pate and Hirt, engineers who have been studying the relocation and clean-out of the Evans ditch, have decided that it would be better for Lathrup property to leave the course of the stream as it now runs.

After the stream is widened and deepened, Councilman Johnson remarked, it may become an asset to Lathrup property. When contamination ceases and only clean water runs, it will cease to be a ditch but rather a brook or stream again, he said.

More Data Asked In Zoning Requests

FRANKLIN—Letters have been written by the Granville Construction company and the Detroit Bank and Trust company stating that more specific information should be presented before the Franklin village council can consider their requests for rezoning.

The Granville Construction company proposes a shopping center at the southwest corner of Telegraph and 13 Mile road, in Hillmanwoods subdivision, now zoned residential.

The bank proposes to use 45 feet, now zoned residential as an addition to an off-street parking area in conjunction with their proposed branch office on Franklin road between the Buell Slide home and the Franklin Village Drug store.

New Forms Needed To File in Franklin

FRANKLIN—Last year's petition forms are not valid for filing in the March 10 election, Mrs. Page Hank, village clerk, has announced.

New forms are being printed according to state specifications and will include a place for the signer's address and date of signing. These will be available in the village office and must be used to enter candidates on the election ballot.

The final date of filing may also have to be changed, Mrs. Hank revealed. At present, Feb. 22 at noon is the deadline. However, a ruling from the state has been requested by the village regarding the validity of official business transacted on a legal holiday.
