

Student Panel Plans Completed

SOUTH BERKSHIRES—South Berkshires Women's association board members and officers met Wednesday morning for their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Al Light on 13 Mile road. The group completed plans for a panel discussion presented by the student representatives of the American Field service for the Feb. 3, general-association meeting at the Alexander Mead home on Leominster drive.

Lathrup Village

Lathrup Social Briefs

Attending the Father and Son annual luncheon at the DAK Inn, 29 will be Charles Cupp and son, Marshall. There will be swimming before the luncheon and a four hour luncheon by Bill Hayes of Leominster afterwards. Cupp and his wife will forward to the event $200.

Troop 167 Plans College Visits

LATHRUP—The girl scouts of Troop 167 met Jan. 11 at Fellowship hall of the Community Congregational church. The food committee consisted of Gordon and Phyllis Hesterman, Edna and Maria Covelli, Dore and Fran Cooper, Tom and Helen Lemmon, Victor and Gladys Griffin and John and Elaine Fox. Plans are being made for a visit to the college in Ypsilanti Jan. 11. The first school of their agenda. They spent two hours going through the buildings and were impressed with the school for handicapped children and the occupational therapy training. Lunch was at McKinney.

Dance Club Met Jan. 11

LATHRUP—The Lathrup Supper Dance club met Jan. 11 at Fellowship hall of the Community Congregational church. The food committee consisted of Gordon and Phyllis Hesterman, Edna and Maria Covelli, Dore and Fran Cooper, Tom and Helen Lemmon, Victor and Gladys Griffin and John and Elaine Fox. Plans are being made for a visit to the college in Ypsilanti Jan. 11. The first school of their agenda. They spent two hours going through the buildings and were impressed with the school for handicapped children and the occupational therapy training. Lunch was at McKinney.

South Berkshires Social Briefs

On Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. Douglas Wade of Marlboro drive was among Detroit area hostesses entertaining six-a-side telephone bridge parties in their homes. The state-wide bridge parties were sponsored by the Woman's auxiliary to the Michigan Industrial Medical association. Proceeds will go toward a benefit scholarship fund in the field of industrial medicine.

Francis Matousek Named Chairman For Fund Drive

BERKSHIRES—Francis J. Matousek has accepted the appointment as 1958 March of Dimes chairman for the area including Bloomfield township and the northernmost section of Southfield township. Matousek recently moved here from Cleveland Heights where he has been active in Dime Foundation work for a number of years. He recently held the office of finance director for Cuyahoga county chapter.

Westchester Social Briefs

The I. Robert Mease family of Westborough drive recently returned from an extended holiday vacation in the east. Christmas was spent with the senior Ivan L. Mease family in Hershey, Pa. The New Year found them in New Jersey, where they were guests of Mrs. Mary Papp, mother of Mrs. Mease. Combining business and pleasure the Mease's went on to New York leaving the little ones with grandmothers. Seeing "My Fair Lady" was an extra treat and sight-seeing such as the United Nations was enjoyed. Transportation for the trip was the real thrill for Kathy, Philip and Bobby for it was the first time they had seen a porter make up an area on a train plus eat in the dining car.

Clarkes Visit Puerto Vallarta

SOUTH BERKSHIRES—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Clarke are back at their home on Woodway lane after a month vacation in Florida and Mexico. This marks the seventh trip to Mexico for the couple. The Clarks flew to Reading Shores, Fla. where they spent the Christmas holidays with Mrs. Clarke's parents and were joined by Harry's sister Mrs. Ann. After visiting relatives in Miami, the Clarks flew to Mexico city and then on to Puerto Vallarta, a village on the Pacific ocean. The couple enjoyed perfect climate, swimming and fishing. They hooked 10 sailfish and boated five. They also landed a 100-pound shark.

Valley Wds. Group Visits Art Museum

VALLEY WOODS—A chartered bus transported a group from the Valley Woods Women's association to the Detroit Institute of Art last week. Under the guidance of an art museum member, art during the different periods was explained and the museum's latest positions were shown. Following the tour, members enjoyed tea and discussion.

Group Discusses Welcoming Tea

SOUTH BERKSHIRES—Fellowship committee members of the South Berkshires Women's association met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. William Harrison, Sr. on Vernon drive, chairman. Committee members plan to call on newcomers in the area and invite them to participate in association activities. Also discussed was a welcoming tea for newcomers. Following the meeting a variety of cakes and cookies was served with coffee to Mrs. Isaac Ross, Mrs. Paul McGarity, Mrs. Walter Wojcicki, Mrs. Donald Selby, Mrs. Leonard Pichocki, Mrs. Philip Diesel, Mrs. William Harrison, Jr. and Mrs. Charles Young.

Mrs. Burlingame Is Guest Speaker

WESTCHESTER—Monday evening at 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Henry Gluckstad, 2811 Farmingdale, the Westchester branch of the WNFCA will have the opportunity of hearing Alice Burlingame speak on "House plants for Effective Accents in the Home." Special writer for The Eccentric Alice Burlingame is recognized as a pioneer in the field of horticultural therapy. She combines actual training with practical experience. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Robert Dornan and Mrs. John Bryant. A cordial welcome is extended to anyone wishing to attend and guest reservation may be made through Mrs. Gluckstad.

First Meeting For Lydia Circle

CRANBROOK VILLAGE—The ladies of Lydia Circle, an afternoon group of Peace American Lutheran church, located on 13 Mile road near Southfield, met Jan. 11 at the home of Mrs. Harry Gavin of Birmingham. This was the first meeting to organize the group. After the business meeting a bible study and dessert followed. Approximately eight ladies attended.

Group Selects Play

LATHRUP—At a meeting Thursday at the home of Mrs. George Rootow, the Lathrup Players selected a one-act play for presentation at the March 3 meeting of the Lathrup Woman's Club. The amusing little mystery comedy will be to rehearse this week. Mrs. Jack Gould will direct.

Host Dinner Party

CAMBRIDGE VILLAGE—The Roger Brownes of Spring Arbor road were host and hostess for a dinner party Jan. 11. Slaves were shown of the Brownes' trip to Charleston, S. C. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Len Jenkins of Detroit.

Woodcraft Project Finished by Group

VALLEY WOODS—After the Indian Guides, Fox tribe, finished their woodcraft project, the tribe of Chief White Rock and Little White Rock (Ken and Kenny Kistler) enjoyed hot chocolate and cupcakes. The braves made bookcovers of wood, laced with leather for Indian folklore and tribal notes. A field trip was planned for Jan. 25 when the tribe will visit Willow Run airport for a conducted tour. Highlighting the trip will be a chance to sit in a pilot seat of a large airliner and be shown how the control panel is used.

Virginia Guests

VALLEY WOODS—Mrs. James Sallawyer and daughters, Ann and Doris, from Alexandria, Va., are visiting grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Frank Neward of Orchard lane. While here friends and neighbors came over to meet the young family and chatter over coffee.

Officials to Answer Scouting Questions

VALLEY WOODS—A "get-acquainted" with boy scouting for parents intended to attend and members of a troop will be Tuesday in the multi-purpose room at Valley Woods school. The league will have four teams again this year. Scout officials will be present to answer questions and assist in forming the new units to be sponsored by Valley Woods PTA.

Do you suddenly find there isn't room enough in your home for that growing family?

On the North Shore of Lower Long Lake, the big, picturesque hillside site, in this home you will find plenty of room for energetic children, and plenty of room also where you can retreat for some peace and quiet.

How can you afford to rent? After all, you do want the most for your money.

For only $1500 with the standard nominal mortgage costs, you can move into this brick home.

There's a lot of attractive features about this home that you will personally want to see. Call us today for an appointment anytime at your convenience.

Art Group Elects Mrs. Richard Nette

WESTCHESTER—The Westchester art group met for election of chairman and a social meeting at the home of Mrs. William Hanson on Berkshire drive. Mrs. Richard Nette succeeded Mrs. Vernon Fish as chairman. It was decided to change meeting dates to the first and third Wednesday of each month. Painting, sculpturing and ceramics will again be taught under the direction of Marie Sturmer.

Committee Mothers Attend Meeting

VALLEY WOODS—Brownie troop 248 had a troop committee mothers meeting at the home of co-leader Mrs. Walter Nyhl's Monday. Attending were Mrs. Norma Burns, troop leader, Mrs. Ted Parris and Mrs. Fred Pollard. Plans for field trips and troop meetings for the spring season were made with hope for some winter sports.

March of Dimes Volunteers Needed

SOUTH BERKSHIRES—Volunteers who can give one hour of time to solicit funds for the March of Dimes are asked to call area chairman, Mrs. Ralph Morens of Marlboro drive. In the suburban areas workers are urged to make calls in the daytime wherever possible.

Woodcraft Project Finished by Group

VALLEY WOODS—After the Indian Guides, Fox tribe, finished their woodcraft project, the tribe of Chief White Rock and Little White Rock (Ken and Kenny Kistler) enjoyed hot chocolate and cupcakes. The braves made bookcovers of wood, laced with leather for Indian folklore and tribal notes. A field trip was planned for Jan. 25 when the tribe will visit Willow Run airport for a conducted tour. Highlighting the trip will be a chance to sit in a pilot seat of a large airliner and be shown how the control panel is used.

How would you like to skate, and fish, and swim, and sun bathe right on the edge of your own lawn? This Contemporary turns such a dream into a reality!

On the North Shore of Lower Long Lake, the big, level design creates an expandable lower level study-bedroom, plus family room plan. There are already 3 bedrooms, a library, separate dining room, splendid living room with large picture windows. Elegantly carpeted. Flagstone terrace on the luxuriously landscaped grounds. The very finest of custom construction, designed by a noted Eastern architect. $65,000.

How can you afford to rent? After all, you do want the most for your money.

For only $1500 with the standard nominal mortgage costs, you can move into this brick home. The location is a great for a junior executive because it's only a brief five minutes to the commuter station; because the children can walk to our Birmingham schools; because mother has only a few blocks to either drive or stroll to the main shops uptown.

There's a lot of attractive features about this home that you will personally want to see. Call us today for an appointment anytime at your convenience.

Art Group Elects Mrs. Richard Nette

WESTCHESTER—The Westchester art group met for election of chairman and a social meeting at the home of Mrs. William Hanson on Berkshire drive. Mrs. Richard Nette succeeded Mrs. Vernon Fish as chairman. It was decided to change meeting dates to the first and third Wednesday of each month. Painting, sculpturing and ceramics will again be taught under the direction of Marie Sturmer.

Committee Mothers Attend Meeting

VALLEY WOODS—Brownie troop 248 had a troop committee mothers meeting at the home of co-leader Mrs. Walter Nyhl's Monday. Attending were Mrs. Norma Burns, troop leader, Mrs. Ted Parris and Mrs. Fred Pollard. Plans for field trips and troop meetings for the spring season were made with hope for some winter sports.

March of Dimes Volunteers Needed

SOUTH BERKSHIRES—Volunteers who can give one hour of time to solicit funds for the March of Dimes are asked to call area chairman, Mrs. Ralph Morens of Marlboro drive. In the suburban areas workers are urged to make calls in the daytime wherever possible.

Woodcraft Project Finished by Group

VALLEY WOODS—After the Indian Guides, Fox tribe, finished their woodcraft project, the tribe of Chief White Rock and Little White Rock (Ken and Kenny Kistler) enjoyed hot chocolate and cupcakes. The braves made bookcovers of wood, laced with leather for Indian folklore and tribal notes. A field trip was planned for Jan. 25 when the tribe will visit Willow Run airport for a conducted tour. Highlighting the trip will be a chance to sit in a pilot seat of a large airliner and be shown how the control panel is used.

How would you like to skate, and fish, and swim, and sun bathe right on the edge of your own lawn? This Contemporary turns such a dream into a reality!

On the North Shore of Lower Long Lake, the big, level design creates an expandable lower level study-bedroom, plus family room plan. There are already 3 bedrooms, a library, separate dining room, splendid living room with large picture windows. Elegantly carpeted. Flagstone terrace on the luxuriously landscaped grounds. The very finest of custom construction, designed by a noted Eastern architect. $65,000.

How can you afford to rent? After all, you do want the most for your money.

For only $1500 with the standard nominal mortgage costs, you can move into this brick home. The location is a great for a junior executive because it's only a brief five minutes to the commuter station; because the children can walk to our Birmingham schools; because mother has only a few blocks to either drive or stroll to the main shops uptown.

There's a lot of attractive features about this home that you will personally want to see. Call us today for an appointment anytime at your convenience.

Woodcraft Project Finished by Group

VALLEY WOODS—After the Indian Guides, Fox tribe, finished their woodcraft project, the tribe of Chief White Rock and Little White Rock (Ken and Kenny Kistler) enjoyed hot chocolate and cupcakes. The braves made bookcovers of wood, laced with leather for Indian folklore and tribal notes. A field trip was planned for Jan. 25 when the tribe will visit Willow Run airport for a conducted tour. Highlighting the trip will be a chance to sit in a pilot seat of a large airliner and be shown how the control panel is used.

Committee Mothers Attend Meeting

VALLEY WOODS—Brownie troop 248 had a troop committee mothers meeting at the home of co-leader Mrs. Walter Nyhl's Monday. Attending were Mrs. Norma Burns, troop leader, Mrs. Ted Parris and Mrs. Fred Pollard. Plans for field trips and troop meetings for the spring season were made with hope for some winter sports.

March of Dimes Volunteers Needed

SOUTH BERKSHIRES—Volunteers who can give one hour of time to solicit funds for the March of Dimes are asked to call area chairman, Mrs. Ralph Morens of Marlboro drive. In the suburban areas workers are urged to make calls in the daytime wherever possible.

Woodcraft Project Finished by Group

VALLEY WOODS—After the Indian Guides, Fox tribe, finished their woodcraft project, the tribe of Chief White Rock and Little White Rock (Ken and Kenny Kistler) enjoyed hot chocolate and cupcakes. The braves made bookcovers of wood, laced with leather for Indian folklore and tribal notes. A field trip was planned for Jan. 25 when the tribe will visit Willow Run airport for a conducted tour. Highlighting the trip will be a chance to sit in a pilot seat of a large airliner and be shown how the control panel is used.

How would you like to skate, and fish, and swim, and sun bathe right on the edge of your own lawn? This Contemporary turns such a dream into a reality!

On the North Shore of Lower Long Lake, the big, level design creates an expandable lower level study-bedroom, plus family room plan. There are already 3 bedrooms, a library, separate dining room, splendid living room with large picture windows. Elegantly carpeted. Flagstone terrace on the luxuriously landscaped grounds. The very finest of custom construction, designed by a noted Eastern architect. $65,000.

How can you afford to rent? After all, you do want the most for your money.

For only $1500 with the standard nominal mortgage costs, you can move into this brick home. The location is a great for a junior executive because it's only a brief five minutes to the commuter station; because the children can walk to our Birmingham schools; because mother has only a few blocks to either drive or stroll to the main shops uptown.

There's a lot of attractive features about this home that you will personally want to see. Call us today for an appointment anytime at your convenience.

Woodcraft Project Finished by Group

VALLEY WOODS—After the Indian Guides, Fox tribe, finished their woodcraft project, the tribe of Chief White Rock and Little White Rock (Ken and Kenny Kistler) enjoyed hot chocolate and cupcakes. The braves made bookcovers of wood, laced with leather for Indian folklore and tribal notes. A field trip was planned for Jan. 25 when the tribe will visit Willow Run airport for a conducted tour. Highlighting the trip will be a chance to sit in a pilot seat of a large airliner and be shown how the control panel is used.

Committee Mothers Attend Meeting

VALLEY WOODS—Brownie troop 248 had a troop committee mothers meeting at the home of co-leader Mrs. Walter Nyhl's Monday. Attending were Mrs. Norma Burns, troop leader, Mrs. Ted Parris and Mrs. Fred Pollard. Plans for field trips and troop meetings for the spring season were made with hope for some winter sports.

March of Dimes Volunteers Needed

SOUTH BERKSHIRES—Volunteers who can give one hour of time to solicit funds for the March of Dimes are asked to call area chairman, Mrs. Ralph Morens of Marlboro drive. In the suburban areas workers are urged to make calls in the daytime wherever possible.

Woodcraft Project Finished by Group

VALLEY WOODS—After the Indian Guides, Fox tribe, finished their woodcraft project, the tribe of Chief White Rock and Little White Rock (Ken and Kenny Kistler) enjoyed hot chocolate and cupcakes. The braves made bookcovers of wood, laced with leather for Indian folklore and tribal notes. A field trip was planned for Jan. 25 when the tribe will visit Willow Run airport for a conducted tour. Highlighting the trip will be a chance to sit in a pilot seat of a large airliner and be shown how the control panel is used.

How would you like to skate, and fish, and swim, and sun bathe right on the edge of your own lawn? This Contemporary turns such a dream into a reality!

On the North Shore of Lower Long Lake, the big, level design creates an expandable lower level study-bedroom, plus family room plan. There are already 3 bedrooms, a library, separate dining room, splendid living room with large picture windows. Elegantly carpeted. Flagstone terrace on the luxuriously landscaped grounds. The very finest of custom construction, designed by a noted Eastern architect. $65,000.

How can you afford to rent? After all, you do want the most for your money.

For only $1500 with the standard nominal mortgage costs, you can move into this brick home. The location is a great for a junior executive because it's only a brief five minutes to the commuter station; because the children can walk to our Birmingham schools; because mother has only a few blocks to either drive or stroll to the main shops uptown.

There's a lot of attractive features about this home that you will personally want to see. Call us today for an appointment anytime at your convenience.

Woodcraft Project Finished by Group

VALLEY WOODS—After the Indian Guides, Fox tribe, finished their woodcraft project, the tribe of Chief White Rock and Little White Rock (Ken and Kenny Kistler) enjoyed hot chocolate and cupcakes. The braves made bookcovers of wood, laced with leather for Indian folklore and tribal notes. A field trip was planned for Jan. 25 when the tribe will visit Willow Run airport for a conducted tour. Highlighting the trip will be a chance to sit in a pilot seat of a large airliner and be shown how the control panel is used.

Committee Mothers Attend Meeting

VALLEY WOODS—Brownie troop 248 had a troop committee mothers meeting at the home of co-leader Mrs. Walter Nyhl's Monday. Attending were Mrs. Norma Burns, troop leader, Mrs. Ted Parris and Mrs. Fred Pollard. Plans for field trips and troop meetings for the spring season were made with hope for some winter sports.

March of Dimes Volunteers Needed

SOUTH BERKSHIRES—Volunteers who can give one hour of time to solicit funds for the March of Dimes are asked to call area chairman, Mrs. Ralph Morens of Marlboro drive. In the suburban areas workers are urged to make calls in the daytime wherever possible.

Woodcraft Project Finished by Group

VALLEY WOODS—After the Indian Guides, Fox tribe, finished their woodcraft project, the tribe of Chief White Rock and Little White Rock (Ken and Kenny Kistler) enjoyed hot chocolate and cupcakes. The braves made bookcovers of wood, laced with leather for Indian folklore and tribal notes. A field trip was planned for Jan. 25 when the tribe will visit Willow Run airport for a conducted tour. Highlighting the trip will be a chance to sit in a pilot seat of a large airliner and be shown how the control panel is used.

How would you like to skate, and fish, and swim, and sun bathe right on the edge of your own lawn? This Contemporary turns such a dream into a reality!

On the North Shore of Lower Long Lake, the big, level design creates an expandable lower level study-bedroom, plus family room plan. There are already 3 bedrooms, a library, separate dining room, splendid living room with large picture windows. Elegantly carpeted. Flagstone terrace on the luxuriously landscaped grounds. The very finest of custom construction, designed by a noted Eastern architect. $65,000.

How can you afford to rent? After all, you do want the most for your money.

For only $1500 with the standard nominal mortgage costs, you can move into this brick home. The location is a great for a junior executive because it's only a brief five minutes to the commuter station; because the children can walk to our Birmingham schools; because mother has only a few blocks to either drive or stroll to the main shops uptown.

There's a lot of attractive features about this home that you will personally want to see. Call us today for an appointment anytime at your convenience.

Woodcraft Project Finished by Group

VALLEY WOODS—After the Indian Guides, Fox tribe, finished their woodcraft project, the tribe of Chief White Rock and Little White Rock (Ken and Kenny Kistler) enjoyed hot chocolate and cupcakes. The braves made bookcovers of wood, laced with leather for Indian folklore and tribal notes. A field trip was planned for Jan. 25 when the tribe will visit Willow Run airport for a conducted tour. Highlighting the trip will be a chance to sit in a pilot seat of a large airliner and be shown how the control panel is used.

Committee Mothers Attend Meeting

VALLEY WOODS—Brownie troop 248 had a troop committee mothers meeting at the home of co-leader Mrs. Walter Nyhl's Monday. Attending were Mrs. Norma Burns, troop leader, Mrs. Ted Parris and Mrs. Fred Pollard. Plans for field trips and troop meetings for the spring season were made with hope for some winter sports.

March of Dimes Volunteers Needed

SOUTH BERKSHIRES—Volunteers who can give one hour of time to solicit funds for the March of Dimes are asked to call area chairman, Mrs. Ralph Morens of Marlboro drive. In the suburban areas workers are urged to make calls in the daytime wherever possible.

Woodcraft Project Finished by Group

VALLEY WOODS—After the Indian Guides, Fox tribe, finished their woodcraft project, the tribe of Chief White Rock and Little White Rock (Ken and Kenny Kistler) enjoyed hot chocolate and cupcakes. The braves made bookcovers of wood, laced with leather for Indian folklore and tribal notes. A field trip was planned for Jan. 25 when the tribe will visit Willow Run airport for a conducted tour. Highlighting the trip will be a chance to sit in a pilot seat of a large airliner and be shown how the control panel is used.

How would you like to skate, and fish, and swim, and sun bathe right on the edge of your own lawn? This Contemporary turns such a dream into a reality!

On the North Shore of Lower Long Lake, the big, level design creates an expandable lower level study-bedroom, plus family room plan. There are already 3 bedrooms, a library, separate dining room, splendid living room with large picture windows. Elegantly carpeted. Flagstone terrace on the luxuriously landscaped grounds. The very finest of custom construction, designed by a noted Eastern architect. $65,000.

How can you afford to rent? After all, you do want the most for your money.

For only $1500 with the standard nominal mortgage costs, you can move into this brick home. The location is a great for a junior executive because it's only a brief five minutes to the commuter station; because the children can walk to our Birmingham schools; because mother has only a few blocks to either drive or stroll to the main shops uptown.

There's a lot of attractive features about this home that you will personally want to see. Call us today for an appointment anytime at your convenience.

Woodcraft Project Finished by Group

VALLEY WOODS—After the Indian Guides, Fox tribe, finished their woodcraft project, the tribe of Chief White Rock and Little White Rock (Ken and Kenny Kistler) enjoyed hot chocolate and cupcakes. The braves made bookcovers of wood, laced with leather for Indian folklore and tribal notes. A field trip was planned for Jan. 25 when the tribe will visit Willow Run airport for a conducted tour. Highlighting the trip will be a chance to sit in a pilot seat of a large airliner and be shown how the control panel is used.

Committee Mothers Attend Meeting

VALLEY WOODS—Brownie troop 248 had a troop committee mothers meeting at the home of co-leader Mrs. Walter Nyhl's Monday. Attending were Mrs. Norma Burns, troop leader, Mrs. Ted Parris and Mrs. Fred Pollard. Plans for field trips and troop meetings for the spring season were made with hope for some winter sports.

March of Dimes Volunteers Needed

SOUTH BERKSHIRES—Volunteers who can give one hour of time to solicit funds for the March of Dimes are asked to call area chairman, Mrs. Ralph Morens of Marlboro drive. In the suburban areas workers are urged to make calls in the daytime wherever possible.

Woodcraft Project Finished by Group

VALLEY WOODS—After the Indian Guides, Fox tribe, finished their woodcraft project, the tribe of Chief White Rock and Little White Rock (Ken and Kenny Kistler) enjoyed hot chocolate and cupcakes. The braves made bookcovers of wood, laced with leather for Indian folklore and tribal notes. A field trip was planned for Jan. 25 when the tribe will visit Willow Run airport for a conducted tour. Highlighting the trip will be a chance to sit in a pilot seat of a large airliner and be shown how the control panel is used.

How would you like to skate, and fish, and swim, and sun bathe right on the edge of your own lawn? This Contemporary turns such a dream into a reality!

On the North Shore of Lower Long Lake, the big, level design creates an expandable lower level study-bedroom, plus family room plan. There are already 3 bedrooms, a library, separate dining room, splendid living room with large picture windows. Elegantly carpeted. Flagstone terrace on the luxuriously landscaped grounds. The very finest of custom construction, designed by a noted Eastern architect. $65,000.

How can you afford to rent? After all, you do want the most for your money.

For only $1500 with the standard nominal mortgage costs, you can move into this brick home. The location is a great for a junior executive because it's only a brief five minutes to the commuter station; because the children can walk to our Birmingham schools; because mother has only a few blocks to either drive or stroll to the main shops uptown.

There's a lot of attractive features about this home that you will personally want to see. Call us today for an appointment anytime at your convenience.

Woodcraft Project Finished by Group

VALLEY WOODS—After the Indian Guides, Fox tribe, finished their woodcraft project, the tribe of Chief White Rock and Little White Rock (Ken and Kenny Kistler) enjoyed hot chocolate and cupcakes. The braves made bookcovers of wood, laced with leather for Indian folklore and tribal notes. A field trip was planned for Jan. 25 when the tribe will visit Willow Run airport for a conducted tour. Highlighting the trip will be a chance to sit in a pilot seat of a large airliner and be shown how the control panel is used.

Committee Mothers Attend Meeting

VALLEY WOODS—Brownie troop 248 had a troop committee mothers meeting at the home of co-leader Mrs. Walter Nyhl's Monday. Attending were Mrs. Norma Burns, troop leader, Mrs. Ted Parris and Mrs. Fred Pollard. Plans for field trips and troop meetings for the spring season were made with hope for some winter sports.

March of Dimes Volunteers Needed

SOUTH BERKSHIRES—Volunteers who can give one hour of time to solicit funds for the March of Dimes are asked to call area chairman, Mrs. Ralph Morens of Marlboro drive. In the suburban areas workers are urged to make calls in the daytime wherever possible.

Woodcraft Project Finished by Group

VALLEY WOODS—After the Indian Guides, Fox tribe, finished their woodcraft project, the tribe of Chief White Rock and Little White Rock (Ken and Kenny Kistler) enjoyed hot chocolate and cupcakes. The braves made bookcovers of wood, laced with leather for Indian folklore and tribal notes. A field trip was planned for Jan. 25 when the tribe will visit Willow Run airport for a conducted tour. Highlighting the trip will be a chance to sit in a pilot seat of a large airliner and be shown how the control panel is used.

How would you like to skate, and fish, and swim, and sun bathe right on the edge of your own lawn? This Contemporary turns such a dream into a reality!

On the North Shore of Lower Long Lake, the big, level design creates an expandable lower level study-bedroom, plus family room plan. There are already 3 bedrooms, a library, separate dining room, splendid living room with large picture windows. Elegantly carpeted. Flagstone terrace on the luxuriously landscaped grounds. The very finest of custom construction, designed by a noted Eastern architect. $65,000.

How can you afford to rent? After all, you do want the most for your money.

For only $1500 with the standard nominal mortgage costs, you can move into this brick home. The location is a great for a junior executive because it's only a brief five minutes to the commuter station; because the children can walk to our Birmingham schools; because mother has only a few blocks to either drive or stroll to the main shops uptown.

There's a lot of attractive features about this home that you will personally want to see. Call us today for an appointment anytime at your convenience.

Woodcraft Project Finished by Group