

We Heard It Said By:

John A. Brown, 1289 Fairfax: "Over a long life I have observed, among other changes, less old-fashioned 'nephewliness' among people. This, no doubt, is largely due to the introduction and use of the automobile, which allows us to drive miles to see friends, instead of walking a few doors on our feet. Yet I believe that most of us still have an inherent desire to be friendly, to be good Samaritans. . . . We only wait for opportunities to come about to play such roles."

OPEN EVENINGS

You're Right—Our Winters ARE Warmer!

ANN ARBOR — Yep, those older timers were right. It WAS colder in the "good old days."

So said Professor Erling Dorf of Princeton University in a recent lecture at the University of Michigan.

"Climatic conditions in the United States are due to climatic fluctuations within the next 200 years," Professor Dorf said.

According to the weather report, "The average temperature has been rising gradually since the last ice glacier age about 12,000 years ago although the earth experienced a 'little ice age' from 1600 to 1850. We are still hearing stories about it," he commented.

AN AUTHORITY on paleobotany, Professor Dorf based his conclusions on plant fossil remains which, he says, are better indicators of the past than remains of fossil animals. "Plants are more sensitive and stationary."

He explained that animals can escape an advancing glacier by running away and when fossils of such animals are found, the location often does not indicate their native habitat.

Plant species typical of warm and cold climates indicate more closely the true temperature existing in the particular period in which they are found," he said. Backing up his theory of continually increasing temperature, Professor Dorf reported the findings of scientists in related fields. "Records of sea levels indicate the oceans have been rising at the rate of two feet per 100 years since 1920 due to melting glaciers," he said.

AND WHAT IF all the ice caps melted?

"In that case," said Professor Dorf, "the sea level would rise over 100 feet."

"Warmer temperatures have already had some effect in various parts of the world," he concluded. "In Canada, for instance, the crop line was extended 65 miles northward since 1920."

From where I sit . . . by Joe Marsh

It's in the Bag

Out-of-towners must have wondered what was going on last Tuesday. Every parking meter was covered by a paper bag lettered "Free Parking."

Tuesday was officially designated "Free Parking Day" by the Town Council as a reward for going a year without a traffic accident.

"Traffic safety, like wine, is its own reward," said David Cunningham as he processed the motion. "But let's slow our drivers we're proud of 'em!"

From where I sit, a little praise never hurts—in fact, that's why I talk in this column about the nice, fair-minded people I meet. Folks who live—and let live . . . who don't care whether you like beer or buttermilk at dinnertime. I say, read neighbors never try to "perk" their ideas on others!
