Imported Outfits To Be Featured

"Atomic Power at Lagoon Beach" was the title of a slide presentation dealing with the Enrico Fermi atomic power plant for the Tuesday meeting of the Birmingham Junior Woman's club.

Rubie A. Thomas, nuclear engineer for Atomic Power Development Associates Inc., was the speaker. He discussed his company's work in the development and planning of an atomic reactor to be used in the production of electricity.

Members will get a preview of the fashion show scheduled for Jan. 29. Imported smart and leisure outfits, which will be of a continental flavor, will be modeled at the Community House at 8:30 p.m.

Nancy McGuire, her only attendant, wore a small feather hat with her navy blue silk organza dress. Oval Blair Warren was best man and sealing the guests was John George Leslie, cousin of the bride.

SINCE BOTH sets of parent still reside in Scotland, the bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Archibald MacFarlane, of Bloomfield Hills. Her aunt, Mrs. George Leslie of Bloomfield Hills, stood in place of her mother and wore a blue lace dress with navy accessories and pale pink camellias.

Standing for the groom were his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas General of Detroit. Mrs. General pinned white camellias to her navy blue velvet dress. The newlyweds are making their home at 54 Bloomfield Terraces.
