MRS. RICHARD L. ALDERSON

Alderson-Coffin Married in Hudson

A center stairway and colonial decor provided a traditional background for the marriage of Cella DeForest Coffin to Richard L. Alderson. The Rev. Arthur Pritchett of Christ Church Episcopal in Hudson, Ohio, performed the 5 o'clock ceremony in the presence of the immediate families and close friends in the Coffin's home.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Coffin of Hudson, Ohio, formerly of Birmingham. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Alderson of Lakewood, Ohio.

THE BRIDE WORE a ballroom length wedding gown fashioned of alercon lace over ivory satin with a shoulder length veil. A bouquet of stephanotis, daisies, and hyacinths completed the bridal picture.

Her maid of honor was Elizabeth Young Margraves of Istanbul, Turkey. Elizabeth is studying in this country and is a college friend of the bride. She wore a red tulle tulle gown trimmed with red bows and a corsage of white carnations.

Chaper Wanda of Cleveland, Ohio, stood as best man.

Mrs. Coffin selected a blue silk tulle gown with white orchids and the groom's mother chose a brown wool gown with green orchids.

FOLLOWING THEIR WEDDING trip, the couple will make their home in Cleveland Heights.

The Coffin family will soon return to Birmingham, where they will again make their residence after three years in Hudson.

The bride is the granddaughter of former Detroit, Howard A. Coffin, congressman from Michigan.

The Business Aspects Of The Funeral Should Be Understood By EVERYONE

There was a day, not long past, when it was disturbing to the family to speak of life insurance. Today it is an accepted part of family planning. We respectfully suggest that the time has come for the family to assume the same objective attitude toward funeral arrangements.

Today's Funeral Director, his facilities and services are modern, and dignified. They are based upon a determination to provide the highest type of personal service, both before and at the time of family crisis.

You should know about these services—now—so that any doubts, misgivings or fears may be discussed freely and at a time not burdened by personal loss.

Questions such as these will be discussed honestly and freely:
What should I pay for a funeral? How should I choose a Funeral Director? What services should I expect from the Funeral Director? Or any other questions you may wish to ask. Consultations and daily tours without obligation.
