Buchanans Honeymoon To Northern Michigan

First Congregational church was the scene Saturday afternoon for the marriage of Joan Margaret Blair and James Laird Buchanan. The Rev. Anthony A. Nelson performed the 2:30 o'clock ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rowland W. Blair of Manistee. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Buchanan of Henrietta street, Birmingham.

THE BRIDE'S gown was fashioned of pure white silk organza on princess lines featuring a fitted bodice, long sleeves, Sabrina neckline of re-embroidered alencon lace trimmed with pearls and sequins. A fingertip bluish veil of nylon was held in place by a small lace cap trimmed with pearls and sequins matching the neckline of the dress. A bouquet of daisies and white roses completed the bridal picture.

Mrs. Charles Chase was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Carol Blair, sister of the bride, and Jean and Judith Buchanan, sisters of the groom.

THEIR DRESSES were designed with fitted bodices and full skirts of white eyelet embroidered organza over pale blue taffeta with matching cummerbunds and long sashes. They carried daisies and carnations.

Homer R. Hargrove stood as best man. Seating the guests were Gordon Wylie, Melvyn Albirte and Melvyn Schultz.

Mother of the bride chose an aqua silk sheath dress with white accessories and orchid corsage. Mrs. Buchanan selected a blue silk organza and linen sheath dress with blue and white accessories and orchid corsage.

RECEPTION was in the church parlors following the ceremony.

The bride changed to a green sheath dress with matching jacket and white accessories for her honeymoon to Northern Michigan.
