Good Gardeners, Are These Chores Done?

By this time good gardeners have their second spreading of fertilizer on their lawns—and the wise ones weeded their lawns at the same time. "Me and my pal" (the gentleman who pays to have his garden comments printed) agree that weed killers' effect often carries over for more than one year.

chemical on the market this season. If you are allergic to it you will find a pronounced swelling. Here's what to do:

For Your Young Lady—A Playhouse

Calling all fathers of children age five to 12. It's playhouse building time.

Playhouses, as every parent knows, come in all shapes and sizes. Often a tent serves the purpose, or a blanket thrown over the clothes line, or an impromptu arrangement of scrap boards that the children put together themselves.

INCLUDING HEAT, HOT WATER, ELECTRIC STOVE, REFRIGERATOR

Make a solution of one heaping tablespoonful of epsom salts in a quart of warm water. Saturate the clothes and wrap the affected area, then cover the whole with a plastic covering like a dry cleaner's wrap. Now elevate the affected part of the body. This is first aid. Then call your physician.

MRS. FRUEHAUF is very conservation-conscious, so branches, leaves and such are deposited along the banks of the stream to check erosion when the swollen spring waters come tumbling along.

THE W. H. PETHIBONE home at 1460 Epping lane has a new landscaping job with a fine pattern that will carry it through every season of the year.

The sun was sinking low when, lo, on the horizon a whisper of dust swirled lazily upwards in the sweltering miasma of heat—as though raised by horse hoofs. YOU CAN PLANT POTTED ROSES NOW

It seems like a hard life, working in the swirl of the traffic all day and getting home in your 4 foot S B about 9:00 p.m. (E.D.S.T.) with no TV, radio or Eccentric, and no food on the range—that is, on the stove.

BUT THEIR FOUR EYES lit up and even the dust tried to swirl a little as they raced slowly around the corner of the S B and saw it!

All of this was arranged early this morning (using KINGFORD "long burning" BRQUETTES) when M & B (Man and Beast) set out into the sweltering miasma of heat to twirl a rope and raise a few swirls.

Well, it is thought that they ate it all and while sleeping it off some rustlers did away with M & B and swiped the grill because many years later all that was found by the search party was a 4 foot 5 inch S B.
