Bride Gowned In Nylon Lace Over Taffeta

Kathleen Elaine Robinson wore a gown fashioned of white nylon lace over taffeta for her June marriage to Donald William Wyzlic.

The couple repeated their vows at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robinson of Sunningdale drive, Wing Lake. Her husband is the son of the William Wyzlics of Royal Oak.

The bride's gown featured a draped neckline dipping in back to semi-length train. A pearl tiara secured her fingertip veil of silk illusion. A corsage of white and yellow roses completed the bridal picture.

MR. AND MRS. Robert Robinson attended the bride and groom. Matron of honor wore a white and black pencil stripe chemise with white and pink corsage.

Mother of the bride chose a navy blue lace over taffeta and the groom's mother selected a pink lace over matching satin.

Immediately following the reception, the newlyweds left for Northern Michigan. Upon return they will reside in Commerce.
