Florida Honeymoon

Barbara Flues Pierce and Warfield Peter Curry were united in matrimony Thursday in Kirk of the Hills Rectory. The Rev. Harold C. DeWandt performed the four-voice ceremony in the presence of the immediate families.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Flues of N. Adams road, Birmingham.

Mrs. Robert K. Floyd was her sister's matron of honor and John H. Steward was best man.

The couple are honeymooning in Florida.

McCulloughs Feted

Mr. and Mrs. Fred McCullough will be feted at an Open House Spunday for their 25th wedding anniversary. Mr. McCullough is the owner of Fred's Barber Shop on South Woodward.

Approximately 100 guests will attend the open house. Among those attending are Mrs. McCullough's daughter and husband, the Chris Powells of Muer road, Birmingham.

Have You Met . . .

The residents of 20724 Kenworthy drive? Mr. and Mrs. Walter Scott and their children moved from the change, Ky., in January. The Scotts' hobbies are golf and bridge.

Youngsters Give Ballet With A Chinese Touch

There was much planning and much enthusiasm among the "small fry" in Hickory Heights and past the last week as they made ready for the ballet with a Chinese touch. The children designed, dyed materials and sewed their own costumes.

The ballet was presented to their parents, on the gaily decorated patio of the A. W. Holcomb's of W. Orchard Hill drive on June 27.

Helping the children plan the program was Tully Dickson, the program featured ballets, Chinese dances, pantomimes and skits. The ballerinas wore, Andrea Holcomb, Barbara Frontiers, Barbara Esslinger, Susan Melcher, Sharon Smith, playing guitars were Jean and Ann Smith.

In the skit scenery were little tots, Carol Smith, Cynthia Grogg, Beverly and Jim Frontiers. Giving much humor to the evening were the four clowns, Gary Holcomb, Steve and Jon Smith and Charlie Craig.

At the close of the evening, parents enjoyed refreshments under the Chinese lanterns on the patio. Assisting Mrs. Holcomb was Mrs. George Smith.

The Pine Hill bowling league held their annual potluck picnic at the home of the Clarence Bunniss of Rouge circle recently. The group numbered 43.

A trophy was awarded the first place team of Lou Deak, Maurice Mead, Mercedes Siegel and Mrs. Pat Elliott. Winning trophies for high woman's single game was Mrs. Clarence Bundy; tying for the high man's single were Fred Pattison and Deak. The high three game went to Mrs. Lynn Hudler and Deak. Many others won humorous trophies.

The Ray Emburys of Rouge circle entertained at a buffet supper honoring their daughter, Marilyn on her graduation from Birmingham high school June 14. Among the 75 attending were friends, neighbors and members of the Embury's wedding party of 19 years ago.

They included the A. E. Hesses of the Lloyd Gates, the Thomas Gates, the Gordon Crouches, Mrs. Ralph Bristol and Miss Effie Perry, relatives of Mrs. Embury.

Marilyn will be entering Michigan State university in September and plans on majoring in teaching. In August Marilyn will be among
