Troubadour Lore by Alexander Suczek and the brilliant young pianist, William Doppmann will be featured in the Cranbrook Music Guild's second Garden concert at 4:30 p.m. Sunday, on the Cranbrook House terrace.

MR. DOPPMANN, at the age of 20, was the first musician to receive both the Naumburg and Michaelis awards and is ranked among the most promising young American pianists. He began music study at the age of five and appeared as soloist with Eugene Goossens and the Cincinnati Symphony when he was ten.

Tickets for the concert may be obtained at the Cranbrook Garden entrance on Lone Pine road, Bloomfield Hills at concert time.
