

Silk Organza Frocks Worn By Attendants

Barbara-Lee Sheppard and Ralph Richard Ensworth were united in marriage at 7 o'clock Saturday evening at Kirk in the Hills garden. Dr. Harold C. DeWindt performed the ceremony in the presence of 200 guests.

Parents of the newweds are Mrs. Bernice Sheppard of North Woodward, Birmingham, and Denzel Sheppard of Detroit; and Mrs. Ralph Ensworth and the late Mr. Ensworth.

RE-EMBROIDERED a lace on lace applied on the bride's gown of cameo mousseline de soie featuring a chapel train and a cut out applique neckline. Her veil was secured by a crown of pearl orange blossoms. She carried a spray of stephanotis.

Mrs. Jeannene Everett was her sister's matron of honor. Attendants were Mrs. Denzel Sheppard, Jr., Virginia Townsend and Kathy Fichette. Flower girl was Leigh Everett and she wore a white organza dress and carried a basket of rose petals.

ATTENDANTS were all gowned in identical dresses of silk organza and carried cascades of blue delphinium.

Best man was James Logan and ushers were Denzel Sheppard, Jr., David Hadwase and William Beattie.

A garden reception was at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Everett of Pontiac.

MOTHER OF THE BRIDE chose a silk lace over mauve tulle and Mrs. Ensworth selected a wedding blue silk organza. Both motifs had rosebud corsages. The newweds are honeymooning at Mackinac Island.

Guest Book Bears Names, Cosmopolitan Memories

The John Kinseys of Hylane drive treasure the guest book that has a special place in the entrance hall of their home. It has been signed by many guests from the far away places of Japan, China, Australia, Italy, Turkey, England, Germany and many other countries. The Kinseys have also been entertaining honeymoon couples as well.

In April, Mr. and Mrs. Alberto Nascherpa of Milan, Italy, spent a week of their honeymoon with the Kinseys. The Nascherpas were impressed with the United States. While they were here, they rented a car and spent four months touring the country.

A young bachelor and prospective bridegroom, Didier Barione of Paris, France, spent a week in May with the Kinseys before returning to France to be married in June.

The Kinseys' present houseguests are Mr. and Mrs. Kevin Kirby of Sidney, Australia, who four years ago spent a week of their honeymoon with the Kinseys. A dinner party honoring the visiting couple was held Thursday at the Hylane drive home of the Kinseys. Among the guests were: Richard Williams, the Heinz Kruska and the William Bandesens, all of Grosse Pointe; Don Constant of Berkeley, and the Leon Hansellmans of Hylane drive.

The David Rolls of Burnley drive have just returned home after a stay at Virginia Beach, Va. They made their headquarters at the Marshalls hotel while there. On their trip homeward they stayed a day in Washington, D. C.

The William Niehuis and son, Bill, of Walnut Hill drive spent two weeks vacation at their cottage on Lake Michigan. They enjoyed scenic strolls along the beach, swimming, sunning and golfing.

The Paul Taylor of Lanagan drive are vacationing this week. Their plans include crossing the Mackinac bridge and taking a scenic drive through Wisconsin. They will be staying a few days in the past month at the Detroit Society of Arts and Crafts, Wayne University Lobby Galleries and in the Bloomfield festival.

Mrs. Thayer S. Cowman, 2939 Lanagan drive, has received word that one of her paintings has been selected for the 12th Annual Michigan Water Color Society Traveling Exhibition. The show will be "on the road" until next May and will be exhibited in various cities in Michigan, Ohio, Indiana, Wisconsin, Missouri and Minnesota.

Cowman's oils, gouaches and drawings have been exhibited in the past month at the Detroit Society of Arts and Crafts, Wayne University Lobby Galleries and in the Bloomfield festival.

Greg Cowman and friend Jim Hatmaker of Lanagan drive recently accompanied the Thayer Cowmans on a trip to Frontier Camp near Irons, Okla. The boys enjoyed driving on the new Mackinac bridge and seeing the boats to through the locks at the Soo. A five-hour canoe trip down the Ausable was one of the highlights of the trip.

Ten-year-old Greg Cowman has made the varsity swimming team at Red Run Golf club. He took two first place ribbons in the July 4 races at Red Run. July 6 he won two blue ribbons in the Grosse Ile Country Club swim meet. His time for 25 meters, free style, was 17.3 seconds.

A cocktail party Saturday evening and a "pitch in" chicken barbecue on Sunday was hosted by the Frederick Olivers of Hickory Heights drive honoring the Robert Grundts and children, Gayla and Tom, of Cincinnati, Ohio. The Grundts were former residents of Pine Hill subdivision.

Taking part in the Sunday outing were the Fred Stefankys, the Robert Berkeys, the Walter Schabels of Pine Hill and the E. Joseph Grysons of Foxcroft. Julie and Ron Oliver were also present.

After four years the Charles Howsons of Lanagan drive gathered Mrs. Howsons relatives together for a family reunion July 6. Joining in the day of fun and reminiscing were Mrs. Elmer Bostwick and family, Mrs. Ann Bloomfield and family, Mrs. William Hall and family of Toledo, Ohio, the James Tanewcks of Detroit, and the James Tanewck, Jr., of Tulsa, Okla., who stayed on for a visit.
