Cranbrook Village Social Briefs

Much excitement prevailed at the Lloyd Gabler home on 18700 Autumn lane this past week. Here from Delary, Fla., were Mr. and Mrs. Wallace P. Gabler, Gabler's folks, who celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Sunday at an open house at the Gabler residence. Four sons who had not been reunited for some time met for the occasion. Lt. Col. Clyde Gabler, stationed on the Island of Crete for the last two years was present, along with the Wallace Gabler, Mr. and Mrs. John Tapp, also of Royal Oak and the David

Lathrup Signs Trash Contract Under Protest

LATHRUP—Last holdout on a new contract issued by the rubbish authority, Lathrup has finally agreed to sign. But the contract will be accompanied by a letter listing objections. Smallest city in the 13-member authority, Lathrup has trouble getting all its trash to the authority as the contract specifies. Many Lathrup residents have landscaped

Lathrup Social Briefs

A busy summer commuting back and forth to their summer home every other weekend, has been spent by the Richard Robinsons of Dolores who are staying most of the time at Harbor Springs on Lake Michigan.

Sons, Richard, Gary and Randy fill their days with swimming and following the many trails and paths in the woods.

Mrs. Thomas Reed of Blackstone, and daughter, Barbara Ann, left for Wheaton, Ill., where they are visiting another daughter, Mrs. John Houllston. They all plan to spend several days at Buena Vista park on Lake Geneva, Wis.

Guests of the Hall E. Packard's of Cambridge are Mrs. Packard's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fisher and their son, Michael, of Roanoke, Va. The families here to take in Greenfield village and some of the local plays while here.

Nancy Norton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan M. Norton of Bloomfield drive just returned from a month's stay in Calif., where she visited Disneyland and other points of interest.

Driving down with a friend, Helen Henkel of Royal Oak, the girls stopped off at Las Vegas on their return trip home. They also visited the Kasper Henkels of Los Angeles.

Nancy, who recently graduated from Michigan State university, will begin teaching this fall in Madison Heights.

Cohoons Return From Vacation

CANTERBURY GARDENS — Taking a leisurely drive through Michigan's upper peninsula the Glenn Cohoons of Red Leaf lane returned from a week's trip stopping at Mackinac island and seeing the bridge. Cutting over to Wisconsin they came down to Bellvidere, Ill., where they visited Cohoon's folks, the Harry Cohoons. Sherrie, Ricky, Chris and Laura accompanied their mother and dad.
