Ask us how to put the house in the picture

In all probability, if you're like most people, the two important things you need to get a home are money for a down payment and a loan to make up the difference. The Birmingham Federal Savings can help you get both of these things. In fact, there's no more ideal place you could go for home financing help. And for very good reasons:

1. We know more about home loans because we make more of them... last year one out of every three home loans in the U.S. was arranged by associations like ours.
2. You get friendly understanding and attention to detail from our staff which is experienced in home financing.
3. You repay your loan just like rent. A single monthly payment is set up to include principal, interest and taxes.

4. Most important of all, while you're saving for the down payment your money earns excellent returns, and is insured up to $10,000 by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation.

Bigelow Splash Party Held In English Garden Setting

The English garden of Mrs. Fred Bigelow of North Adams road was the setting for a "splash party" last Thursday. Before a dip in the pool, the guests enjoyed refreshments on the attractive patio that was accented with pink outdoor furniture. A quaint pink bathroom at the edge of the pool with its trellised arbor added much interest to the landscape.

Enjoying the afternoon were Mrs. Gardner Lewis of North Adams road, Mrs. L. J. Hetzelt of Birmingham, Mrs. John Hanna of Royal Oak, Mrs. Gordon Ryder and Mrs. P. E. Greenwood of Grosse Pointe Woods, Miss Roman Wright of Dearborn, Mrs. John Nickson, Mrs. Mary Ellen Lampkin and Mrs. Ronald Hicks of Detroit. From Chatham, Canada came Mrs. Melvin Grant, who stayed on for a few days.

The scene changed in the evening to Devon Gables where the group dined. While Mrs. Bigelow entertained, Mr. Bigelow joined 25 year members of the Detroit Athletic club for an evening of dinner and bowling.

The Frank Watts of Pine Hill drive have just returned from a scenic tour of Michigan and the upper peninsula. They attended a wedding July 3 at Big Rapids before going to Cadillac, and then on across the Mackinac bridge to St. Ignace, Copper Harbor was among the many highlights of the trip.

The Watts traveled along the eastern shore of Michigan on their homeward trip.

The Edward Chamberlins and daughters, Susan, Laura and Ruth, of Burnley drive, are home again after spending five weeks in the east.

Much of their time was spent in Hartford, Conn., visiting the Fred B. Chamberlins, Chamberlin's parents, and the parents of Mrs. Chamberlin, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Santoorjian.

The John Kinseys of Hylane drive and a group of friends formed a "club" eight years ago. The club's purpose was to organize an annual trek of its members to Mackinac Island on the 4th of July weekend. The club has been growing through the years and this year 20 couples met for the busy holiday.

A printed program was presented to the group beforehand with all the activities planned during their stay and their hotel accommodations. They hiked, rode horseback, bicycled, and did their own thing they dined and danced at the Grand Hotel on Mackinac Island. Anniversaries and birthdays were celebrated. The Kinseys found the Mackinac bridge an impressive sight at night with all the decorative green and red lights.

Among the group were the original members; the J. Warren Bushmans of Frankville, the Arthur Andersons of Northville, the Arden Jacques of Saginaw, and the Willie Weavers of Shoreline, N. J.

For the past six years Mrs. Charles DePuy of Chestnut Hill drive and five friends of former school days spend a weekend in the summer at the DePuy's cottage at Birch beach, near Lexington. Last weekend was just such a weekend. There was no cooling, dishes, or housework, just golfing, bowling, lounging on the beach and dining out.

Included in the group were Mrs. William Sasena of Royal Oak, Mrs. O. Ritzel, Mrs. Jack Goodner, Mrs. Edward Kibler and Mrs. S. Bologna of Detroit.

The husbands took over the homefront and the children, as their turn at the cottage comes during the hunting season.

A houseguest at the Michael Kovach home on Pine Hill drive is Mrs. Mary Buehe of Washington, D.C., a sister of Mrs. Kovach. Mrs. Buehe is visiting here for 10 days before going on to San Francisco to visit her daughter.

Visiting the Harry E. Andrews of Pine Hill drive is Major R. H. Weighman, who has just completed three years duty in Hawaii. He is now stationed in the United States.

Over the 4th of July weekend the Andrews houseguests were Mr. and Mrs. Philip Smith of Westall, N. Y., relatives of Mrs. Andrews.

Doona Schwab and Jeannie Smith of Oakhill drive co-hosted a picnic and scavenger hunt for 15 members of the Congregational Church of Birmingham Youth Group July 13, at the Smith residence.

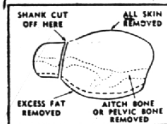

Mrs. Marc Hagerman entertained members of the Delta Zeta sorority at her home on Rutter Hill drive an evening last week. The group was the sorority's new social committee with Mrs. Hagerman as their chairman.

Doug Comb, son of the Maitland Combs, Jr. of Orchard Hill drive, celebrated his ninth birthday July 12 with a luncheon and movie party. Guests joining in the afternoon of fun were Larry Dean, Bob Hudson, Perry Buehler, Greg Riedan and Doug's brother, Brad, all of the North Adams area. From Birmingham were, Fred Matthea, Tom McKenney, Ralph and Scott Galbraith.

The Ralph Richardsons are new-comers to Weatherstone road, formerly of Washington road in Birmingham. They have two children, Martha, 3, and Sarah, 1.
