

Robert Drabik Jane Gagne Exchange Vows

Gowned in Italian silk and lace, Jane Elizabeth Gagne became the bride of Robert Richard Drabik Saturday morning at Holy Name church. The Rev. Msgr. Eugene Paddock performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of 200 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Gagne of Harmon avenue, Birmingham. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Drabik of Berkeley.

THE BRIDE'S floor length gown featured a bodice of alencon lace and her seed pearl headdress secured her fingertip veil of silk illusion. A cascade of white roses and carnations with ivy completed the bridal picture.

Suzanne Marie Gagne was her sister's honor attendant. She wore a willow green princess style silk tulle gown and carried a cascade of white roses.

EDWIN Kosciniak was best man and ushers were Eugene and Lawrence Drabik, brothers of the groom; Mario Gifani and Ronald Jadke.

MRS. ROBERT DRABIK

Mother of the bride wore a moss green lace over taffeta dress and Mrs. Drabik chose a tont lace over taffeta sheath. Both mothers had orchids.

IMMEDIATELY following the ceremony a breakfast reception was at Northwood Inn.

The couple left for a two week honeymoon in Canada. The new Mrs. Drabik changed to a blue linen sheath.

Flowers Flown From Hawaii For Wedding

After a honeymoon to New York state, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Kent Nichols will make their home in East Lansing where Mike will attend summer school at Michigan State university.

The bride was Carolyn Stinson before her June marriage in Christ Church Methodist in New York, N. Y. She is the daughter of Professor and Mrs. Harry Edward Stinson of New York. Michael's parents are the Kenneth Nichols of 14 Mile road, Franklin.

CAROLYN wore a gown of white organza over taffeta with an antique heirloom lace yoke. Her illusion veil fell from a headdress of organza leaves trimmed with rhinestones. Her white orchids from her aunt, Mrs. Helen van Barentzen, were flown in from Hawaii.

Sister of the groom, Mrs. Patrick Carman, was honor maid and bridesmaids were Sandra Keene and Theresa Tracy. They wore identical frocks of yellow silk organza with matching pill box hats. Their flowers, baby hybrid orchids and cymbidium orchids, were also sent from Hawaii.

DAVID R. Koenig was best man. Seating the guests were R. Patrick Carman and Robert McGuane. Mrs. Stinson wore a moss green silk dress with pink rosebuds and Mrs. Nichols wore dior blue lace with tea roses.

MRS. CARL CHRISTIAN

Announce Marriage

Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Reinhardt of Short Hills, N. J., formerly of Birmingham, announce the marriage of their daughter, Ann, to A. Z. Carl L. Christian, son of the Milo Christians of East Liverpool, Ohio. The June ceremony was performed at Christ church in Short Hills by the Rev. Herbert H. Cooper.

Escorted by her father, the bride was attended by Ingrid Lemp. A 1/2 Robert Tule was best man. After a motor trip across the country, the couple will live in Las Vegas, Nev., where Christian is stationed at Nellis Air Force base.

This delicate floral-cut crystal is made by hand; the delightful effect can be achieved no other way. The tiny blossoms are polished; the leaves and stems are left with a soft gray finish. The beauty of this pattern is difficult to illustrate, so we urge you to see Spray in person. It's one of the nicest gifts (and don't forget yourself) in our collection of open stock Fostoria.
