

Attendant Gowned In Blue Organza

In a double ring ceremony at the First Presbyterian church on Saturday afternoon, Shirley Ann Lanning became the bride of Leon Jerome Swatzell. The vows were heard at 2:30 o'clock by the Rev. W. Glen Harris.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Roy M. Lanning of Chesterfield road, Birmingham, and Mr. Paul Swatzell of Flint and the late Mrs. Swatzell.

THE BRIDE'S GOWN was fashioned of French tissue taffeta designed in empire style featuring an alencon lace bodice, portrait neckline and tiny sleeves. The head-dress was a shell of matching alencon lace accented with sequins and the French illusion veil fell to the bride's shoulders. She carried a semi-cascade of amazon lilies and stephanotis.

Mrs. Marvin Lovett, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a sheath style dress of light blue silk organza with a hand

Susan Banes Entertains Friends for An Afternoon

Saturday at the home of Susan Banes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ford Banes of Witherbee road, there was much activity when Susan invited some school friends in for an afternoon of square dancing and rock 'n' roll which the girls have been learning at school.

Seen in the backyard keeping time to the music supplied by a victrola were Heidi Handron, Beverly Griffith, Susan Beard, Jini Lopata, Jo Glazer, Susan Brittemeyer, Wendy Mahan, Jean Woodson, Jill Floyd, Cindy Caldwell, Kathy O'Brien and next-door neighbor Gordon Sims.

Mrs. Banes served hot dogs to the girls after the dance session ended.

Weekend guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Gobecke and daughter Jane, 1133 Wrenwood, were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Beell.

THE BRIDE changed to a white linen dress trimmed in navy blue with matching accessories for her wedding trip to Northern Michigan.

Have You Met . . . Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Whitehead of Bedford road? They moved from Detroit on June 10. Mr. Whitehead is a banker for National Bank of Detroit and president of Thornton Axle, Inc.

The Troyton Manor homeowner's association met recently in the home of George Whitehead, 838 Norwich.

Present were Rutherford Hayes, Charles Penninger, Charles Hooker, Mrs. George Frandson, Mrs. Thomas Schulte and Robert Distler discussing items of interest concerning the area and laying plans for a fall dance set tentatively Oct. 24.

After the meeting adjourned, Whitehead gathered the group around his player piano for a bit of fun and singing.

An afternoon dessert bridge was held last week at the home of Mrs. William Page, 2116 Manchester, for her monthly bride club.

Present were Mrs. James Baldwin, Mrs. Robert Kirby, Mrs. Keith Nesbitt, Mrs. B. A. Elmes, Mrs. John Stitt, Mrs. George Brower and Mrs. Walter Herd.

A relaxing and interesting vacation in Florida was spent recently by Mr. and Mrs. Rutherford Hayes and children, Scott and Ruddy, 1948 Norwich, when they visited Clearwater.

While there, the family especially enjoyed visiting Hayes' parents, Mr. and Mrs. William P. Hayes, and taking advantage of their time to water ski and do some sailing.

June 16 was an exciting and wonderful day in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore T. Teegarden.

Society

1961 Norwich, Troyton Manor, when their first daughter, Nancy Clark was born.

Anxiously awaiting Nancy's arrival home were her two brothers Jimmy, 6, and Tim, 5.

A barbecue chicken dinner party was held Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Granville Barker, 931 Brooklawn. It was a double celebration as the group toasted Mr. and Mrs. Robert Friesner on their sixth wedding anniversary.

Others present were Mr. and Mrs. William Martin, Mr. and Mrs. James Adams and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Distler. After dinner, the group enjoyed a few card games.

A post graduation slumber party was held June 29 by Diana Deering, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Doering, 1654 Witherbee. Diana graduated from Birmingham High School June 29.

Others present and celebrating the diploma were Ann Martin, D'Arline De Joneh, Brennis Friesner, Gail Gajda and Nancy Bridenstine. The girls enjoyed discussing their plans for the coming year.

A board meeting of the St. Jane de Chantal guild was held recently in the home of Mrs. Howard Ross, 1554 Witherbee.

Present to talk about plans for the coming year were Mrs. Richard Morrison, Mrs. Richard Monley, Mrs. James Carey and Mrs. Donald Nantry.

A special gift was presented to Charles Hooker, 1095 Brooklawn, on Father's day when his wife gave birth to a daughter, Kimberly.

Mrs. Hooker is the former Jeanne Crittenden whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Crittenden reside in Royal Oak.

Kimberly was welcomed at home by numerous relatives but especially excited was her 19-month-old brother Scott.

Recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gorman, 1020 Brooklawn, were Gorman's mother and brother, Mrs. Leo Gorman and Lee, from Cleveland, and a great aunt, Mrs. Margaret McGowan of Niles, Ohio.

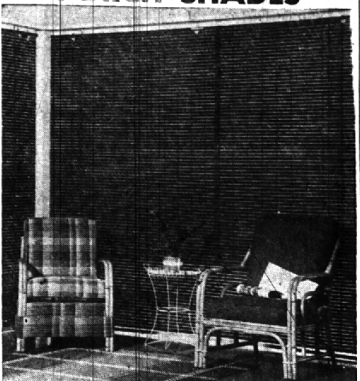

Grandchildren, Nancy, Michael and Tommy Gorman especially enjoyed an outside barbecue while the family were in care and the grown-ups took an evening out to play some bridge.

A pleasant trip to sunny Florida was taken recently by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Schulte and son Tommy, 4, of Witherbee road. Mrs. Schulte's mother, Mrs. Schulte's mother, accompanied them.

Cypress Gardens in Silver Springs, Fla., was their first stop of interest before reaching the Chateau in Miami Beach. While there the group enjoyed a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fick and Mrs. Margaret Baker in Miami, aunt and uncle of Mrs. Schulte. Tommy especially enjoyed visiting the Seagrass in Miami.

Upon their return, they stopped in Springfield, Ohio to visit a cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Dillon and other relatives.
