A reception was held by Mr. and Mrs. Matthew McDonald at Devon Gables for their son and new daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James R. McDonald June 22.

The James McDonalds were married June 7 in Fort Lauderdale, Fla. For the reception, the McDonalds invited 150 guests. Later McDonalds held a party at their home on Parkhurst lane for 75 guests. Mrs. John Hollan, mother of the bride, flew up from Fort Lauderdale for the occasion.

Mrs. James Fisher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clair D. Reason of Maple road and her son, Matthew, arrived back and baggage June 25 from Beverly Hills, Calif. for a month's visit with her parents.

They plan to spend most of their time at the Reason's summer home on Burt lake at Indian River. Fisher plans to join them July 10 for a couple weeks. Before returning they will spend a few days in Birmingham visiting friends and relatives.

The Parkhurst Lane Birthday club had a luncheon June 24. Hostess for the party was Mrs. John W. Jacobs of Parkhurst lane. Present for the luncheon was Mrs. Clarence Behm, Mrs. Louis

Desmond, Mrs. E. K. Knott, Mrs. F. O. Lawrence, Mrs. Archie B. McCall, Mrs. E. L. Westcott and Mrs. W. J. Westcott.

Others were Mrs. Robert McEiffwell, Mrs. Robert Straley, Mrs. James Barbour, Mrs. Robert Colwell, Mrs. John Woodside and Mrs. Matthew McDonald.

There's nothing like having your own 4th of July firecracker in the family. Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Stanley's daughter, Susan, will celebrate her 12th birthday July 4.

The Stanleys plan a family barbecue for the occasion. Later in the evening they will set off a few firecrackers. Helping to grill steaks over the patio will be Stanley's other daughter, Sharon. Guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Don Penley, Mr. and Mrs. John Tatar, Mrs. Mabel Andrecht, Mrs. Virginia Hickey, Jack Mull and Mrs. Stanley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Mull.

Strophian Beck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman W. Beck recently entertained a few of her classmates from Valley Woods school at her home on Parkstone lane. It was sort-of-a "glad to be out of school" party.

Everyone swam in the family pool and were later served lunch by the pool side. Guests were Sally Smith, Rosemary Phelps and Janie Berne.

Stepping out for cocktails and dinner this July 3 will be Mr. and Mrs. Louis Desmond and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Knott.

They will be celebrating the birthdays of Louis Desmond on June 28, Mrs. James Barbour on July 2 and Ed Knott on July 3. Going along for the fun will also be Mr. and Mrs. Matthew McDonald.

A "coffee" was given by Mrs. Louis Desmond in her home on Sherwood road June 26. It was a kickoff meeting for the Holy Name Altar society to arrange for chairmanships for the fall bazaar.

The Rowland H. Starrs of Old Mill road have just returned from a week's trip in upper Michigan. They crossed the Mackinac bridge, ate dinner at Marquette and Copper Harbor. Returning by the Wisconsin Lakes they took the ferry across Lake Michigan.

Home, Mrs. Starr finished all arrangements for the bridal shower she gave for her John, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Hubert John of Detroit. The bride-to-be just graduated from the University of Michigan and will be married Sept. 8 in the Drayton Avenue Presbyterian church of Pleasant Ridge.

Guests were Mrs. Hubert John, Mrs. Matthew A. Van DerKloot, Mrs. Raymond S. Goux, Mrs. Francis Keyser, Mrs. Winston A. Bacon, Mrs. V. Benton Rea, Mrs. Sidney Chapin and Mrs. O. L. Hard.

Other guests were Mrs. Charles Lawson, Mrs. Walter K. Gebrke, Mrs. Harold Bowers, Mrs. Nelson Green, Mrs. D. Hordley and Miss Jan Huddle, Mrs. Victor John, Mrs. Richard Delbridge and Mrs. John Hollan and Mrs. Florence Cooper from Port Huron and Mrs. Jay D. Runkle of Cheyogon.

Presents Students In Piano Recital

WESTCHESTER—Mrs. Edward Pokorny presented her students at a piano recital in her home on Middlebury lane. Among the area young people participating were Debbie and Jamie Twyman, Sharon Stebbins, Mary Taylor, Connie Jacobs, and Mary Jane Piggotts. Several students from her former residence in Dearborn were also presented.

To Repeat Party

WESTCHESTER—The Guy and Gail Bowling party last Friday proved to be such a success that the group voted to repeat it each season. Members met for bowling and afterwards returned to the Henry Gluckstads for a box social.

The George Kann, Jr., of Rossmore drive had as houseguest Mrs. George Kann, Sr., of Dubuque, Iowa. A luncheon and mesales, supplied by grandchildren, Gail, Susan and George, kept grandma's days busy.

Arriving this week from Blackwell, Okla., for a visit is Mrs. Kannon's mother, Mrs. Fay Oberndorf.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Fitch of Middlebury lane have just returned from a 2-week stay at Miami Beach. Driving up the family car was spent at hidden valleys having dinner.

The Andrew Seeds, Mr. and Mrs. John Hinkley and the John Shuster spent a long weekend at Grayling, Mich. Along with 5 other couples, they took a canoe trip down the Au Sable. One enjoyable evening was spent at Hidden Valley having dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Nette of Breckenridge lane were hosts to the Art groups "private showing" of their year's achievements. Husbands were invited to view the works done in watercolor and oil by the painting class and a small musical was presented by the musical instrument group.

Anyone interested in participating next fall may contact Mrs. Thomas Ammer of Berkshire drive.

Mr. and Mrs. David Manley of Middlebury lane were hosts at a dinner party for Mr. and Mrs. Michael Flamery of Toledo and the Robert Swansons.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gluckstad of Middlebury lane will be entertaining guests over the holiday. The George Hager family and Mrs. Gluckstad's mother, Mrs. Christine Hager, are coming in from Eimhurst, Ill.

The Bill Tompkins had guests over the weekend from Boone, Iowa. Friends and former neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. James Frampton and daughter, Kathy Jean, arrived Friday and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brubaker and family, Barbara and Jeffrey, came in Sunday.

The Tompkins' son, Alan, left for his vacation at Austin, Minn., last week. He will stay at the Clarence Gullikson farm, helping cousins with all the chores.

The Robert F. Jones of E. Bradford just returned from a business convention at UCLA in Los Angeles. They also took the opportunity to visit friends.

Scout Troop Camps at Lake

EAST SOUTHFIELD—Boy scouts of Troop 5-8 camped out for the weekend recently at Froud lake. A few days were also spent at Highland recreation area, and Frederick Henderson, a 51st scout scout master, are planning to take about 25 boys on a canoe trip down the Huron river on July 12 and 13.

Mr. and Mrs. George Trudeau, 2847 Aberdeen, hosted a steak dinner for 16 fathers of troop 5-8. The scout committee planned the event to sign up more fathers interested in boy scouting.

The cub scouts from East Southfield have been busy with summer activities also. Over 26 families attended the cub scout pack 5-8 picnic Sunday at Pontiac lake. Cubmaster Dewey Coats arranged the event.

Recently the cubs attended a Tiger baseball game at Briggs stadium.

appeals Monday, but postponed swearing them in until the remaining members are appointed. Marvin Cline, village president, said Tuesday. He added that the council would probably name the remaining four members at its meeting Monday.
