

North Adams David, Ross Smith Spend Summer Working, Touring

David and Ross Smith, sons of the Donald Smiths of Oakhill drive, are having a busy summer this year. David, having completed three years of pre-med at the University of Michigan, received his B. A. degree, with distinction, in June. He will receive his medical degree in June '69. This summer he is externing at the university hospital. Ross was graduated with his BS degree from the school of Art and Design at the University of Michigan on June 14. He left June 16 to visit an uncle, Dr. C. A. Smith at Cambridge, Mass., for a week before joining a group of 80 from the University of Michigan in New York June 19.

The group chartered a plane through the Youth Hostels to spend the summer in Europe. After they arrived in Europe the group separated to go their own ways. Accompanying Ross were Garry Knight and David Palma of Grand Rapids, Mich. Their tour will include the countries of Holland, France, England, Spain, Germany, Denmark and Italy.

After the tours, the group will meet and travel home, arriving September 3.

The Robert Brandons and children, Suz and Carol, of Pine Hill drive joined the William Burnham family of Trenton, relatives of the Brandons, for ten days at a cottage on Lake Scuzog, north of Toronto. The rustic cottage in the pines has been in the family for thirty years, where many a happy hour has been spent.

Home again after a restful three weeks vacation are the William Jacksons of Botters Hill drive. Much of their time was spent at a cottage at Wellington-on-the-lake in Ontario. They enjoyed exploring the sandbars and coves in the area. Fishing was another pleasure and on one of the trips Jackson caught an 8-and-a-half-pound pike.

The family took time out for a trip to Ottawa where they visited the Parliament buildings. The children, Billy, Cathy Ann and Barbara, were impressed by the city and its colorful mounted police.

The Douglas Locks have moved recently into their new home at 1050 Southw. Southfield, from Stoneridge drive in Thorntown. Visiting the Locks for the past six weeks were the Locks parents, James S. Locks of Louth, England. Last Wednesday the senior Locks flew to Montreal then on to Southampton, England.

Newcomers to Stoneridge are the Fred Stickle of Grosse Pointe Farms. They have three children, Andrea, 16, David, 8, and Cynthia, 5. Stickle is an architect and a partner in Stickle, Jajaszewicz and Moody in Birmingham. The family's hobbies center around art, architecture, swimming and other sports.

Andrea Stickle is looking forward to two weeks camping at Rhynton Camp at Rhineland, Wis., in August. This is her third year.

Truck Overturns, Passenger Not Hurt

A panel truck overturned at 10th and Worth streets Friday night after a car driven by Linda L. Rodgers 21, of 850 Adams road, Birmingham, collided with it.

Greg Cowman, son of the Thayer Cowmans of Lanerigan drive, has a few more blue ribbons to add to his list of growing collection. He is a member of the Michigan Inter-club Swim Association and on July 19 competed at Plum Hollow, winning two blue ribbons. On July 20 Greg was awarded two more blue ribbons at the Dearborn County club.

The Richard Morrisons and son, Ricky, of Stoneridge spent a week at Wind-Sun-Pines on Bear Lake near Traverse City. While there they took a side trip to view the Mackinac bridge and the locks at the Soo.

The James Granns and son, Greg, of Upton road spent their vacation this year touring Mackinac Island, the Soo, and Manitowish Island. They enjoyed the scenic Georgian Bay where they had a cottage.

The Robert Kirchers of Burnley drive of Castle Harbor in Bermuda last Thursday for a ten-day vacation.

At home enjoying the company of their grandmother, Mrs. Erwin E. Steiman of Birmingham, are Diane, Pamela and Robert, Jr.

Mrs. Carl Schorn and daughter, Penny, of Oakhill drive, spent ten days recently at their cottage at Harrisville, Mich. Dinner guests at the Carl Schorn home last Wednesday evening were Mr. and Mrs. E. Lyon and children, Mary and Pat.

byterian synod affairs, serving as a trustee.

Surviving him are his wife, Crete; three sons, Rowland, Frank and Charles; and a sister, Margaret Holman.

The body is at Bell chapel, William Hamilton funeral home.

SAM HAYES, 53, brother of Mrs. Paul K. Kline of Holland, formerly of Birmingham, died Monday of a heart attack in San Diego, Calif.

Born Nov. 3, 1904 in Coskeville, Ill., Mr. Hayes received his early education in Birmingham before moving to California, where he had been in radio announcing and news commentary for more than 30 years. Funeral services and burial were in San Diego.

MRS. JENNIE S. GOLEBIOWSKI, 59, died July 24 at her home, 3705 Indian Trail, Orchard Lake, after a long illness. She was born Aug. 16, 1898.

She survived by her husband, Chester and a daughter, Jeanette, at home and two sisters, Mrs. Francisca Otzog of Madison, Poland, and Mrs. Maria Prokop of Grosse Pointe.

Funeral services were Saturday at the William Vasu funeral home, Royal Oak, and St. Joseph's church, Detroit. Interment was at Holy Sepulchre mausoleum, Southfield.

Show Them The Way To Go Home, Say Lost Pups

Lost and lonely, two dogs are waiting for their owners to call for them by contacting the Birmingham Humane society.

To quote the black and white nine-year-old mixed English spaniel with a touch of brown in his coat: "Lost, weary, and tired, on July 5 I wandered to the home of some kind friends. The kind people took me in, but they are leaving on their vacation Sunday, so will somebody please pick me up?"

Also under humane society custody at a veterinary hospital is a blind toy Boston bull, a female found near Square Lake road and Adams Sunday.

We Heard It Said By:

ALICE WENSELS BURLINGAME, garden columnist, The Birmingham Eccentric: "Did you ever stop to think that quite often a woman's use in a profession decreases with her age? In only a few fields, like architecture or design, does any person's service become more valued as he acquires age and experience."
