Ross, Clougherty Babies Christened at Holy Name

The only two babies christened July 20 at Holy Name church in Birmingham were Martha Marie Ross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ross, 1554 Witherbee road, and Kenan James Clougherty, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Clougherty, 1085 Brooklawn road, Troyton Manor. Monsignor Padock officiated at the christening.

Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Girardot were god-parents for Martha and after the ceremony returned to the Ross home for a buffet which included grandparents-Mr. and Mrs. John C. Stone and daughter, Mary Anne, Dr. and Mrs. Carl Schulte, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Schulte and children, Tommy and Nancy, Jim Schulte and older sisters, Peggy and Mary Lou.

Martha's lovely christening dress was 7 1/2 years old and was worn by four generations.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Reardon, Brooklawn court, were proxy god-parents for Kenan as Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Armfield of California were unable to attend.

The Reardens returned to the Clougherty's where they were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Ross and Kenan's four other brothers and sisters, Peggy, Terry, Kathy and Trisay.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Baumann

Witherbee road entertained her neighborhood bridge club.

Seated at the two tables were Mrs. Donald Hibbert, Mrs. James Carey, Mrs. Harry Lippard, Mrs. Robert Distler, Mrs. Thomas Schulte, Mrs. Richard Craig and Mrs. John L. Ward, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Klintworth, 804 Brooklawn road and children, Cathy, 3, and Nancy, 7 months, had as their houseguests this past week Mrs. Klintworth's mother, Mrs. Alice Williams from Seattle, Wash.

The visit was especially nice for Mrs. Williams as it was the first time she had seen little Nancy.

Mrs. James Adams, 902 Brooklawn road, entertained neighbors at a coffee-kitch hearing Mrs. Phil Klintworth and her mother, Mrs. Williams.

Guests included Mrs. William Mahan, Mrs. Harry Lippard, Mrs. Robert Dyle, Mrs. Walter Eckberg, Mrs. Le Grand Terry, Mrs. Stuart Ross, Mrs. Charles Wilson and her mother, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Robert Distler and Mrs. John Ward.

Newcomers to 1802 Wrenwood road are Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Boynton and children, Nancy, 6, Carolyn, 5, and Ronny, 2.

Boynton is associated with Michigan Bell Telephone Co. as general plant staff supervisor.

Both attended the University of Michigan, where Mr. Boynton was affiliated with the Tri Delta society. They are both interested in sports.

In order to attend a high school class reunion in Sturgis, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kilbury and children, Susan and David of 2036 Penske drive to Klinger lake near Sturgis for three days.

They were the houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Sleeper at Klinger lake. Before returning home, the family played some golf in the Irish hills.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Paige and daughters Gail, 17, and Debbie, 7, of 1612 Greenfield road welcomed home their son, David Edward, for two weeks from boot training at Great Lakes naval station in Ill.

While home, David visited with many of his high school friends and others from the naval base. He will return to Great Lakes for schooling as an electrician mate.

Houseguests of Dr. and Mrs. George Clark of Greenfield road were Mrs. E. E. Campbell from Indianapolis, Ind., and Miss L. S. McCurry, Goodland, Ind.

While here, the aunts enjoyed seeing nephews, Greg and Jim Clark, and sightseeing around the area. The Clarks returned to Indiana with the women for a short vacation.

Eight-year-old David Reardon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Reardon, 1076 Brooklawn court has spent a busy past few weeks.

Exciting activities began with his appearance on the "My Friend Harry" television program.

Next on the agenda was a gala birthday celebration, which included members of the Little League baseball team.

Guests were Edward Bolte, Kevin Wilson, Bonnie Garza, Michael Kately, Beau Jacobs, Fred Dye, Steve Randall, Doug Bower, Greg Sisco, Todd Decker and Terry Clougherty.

Following the party David was the houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. McCowley of Elizabeth lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Greene, 1887 Derby road and children, Chuck, Margaret and Mary Lou, spent the past three weeks vacation at Matson lake near Coldwater, Mich.

Most of their time was spent relaxing and swimming with a little time out for antiquing.

Hammond, Ind. was the vacation spot of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Irvin, 1614 Witherbee road, and children, Patsy and Panny. While there, they visited Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Clabbe.

From there, they journeyed to Kentucky where they visited at

MRS. ROBERT ALAN WALTERS

Father Is Best Man For Robert Walters

Evelyn Grace Horne and Robert Alan Walters exchanged rings and vows at noon Saturday in Holy name church. A breakfast reception followed at Devon Gables.

Evelyn wore chantilly lace over skinner satin with a sabrina neckline, long pointed sleeves and a fitted bodice. The bouffant tulle skirt was accentuated by a handkerchief design of chantilly lace. A crown of chantilly lace outlined in seed pearls was offset by borealis sequins scattered on lace design held in place her fingertip veil of French illusion. She carried a cascade of orchids and stephanotis.

HER MAID of honor and only attendant, Betty Joan Thomas, wore a gown of pale yellow silk over net and tulle. She carried yellow chrysanthemums and white carnations.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Walters of Salem Depot, New Hampshire, the groom's father was his best man. Roy W. Horse, son of the Olaf Hornes of Buckingham, Birmingham, and brother of the bride, was an usher along with Richard L. Jeffers.

THE BRIDE'S mother wore white lace over raspberry and the groom's mother wore blue
