their days and partying their nights in Bermuda. ... A diversified vacation was enjoyed this past month by Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Gayman and daughters, Bedonna and Lynn, of Hamilton road.

Relaxing at Hidden Valley in northern Michigan last week were the William J. Winks of N. Williamsbury road and the Harold Brinkers of Grosse Pointe.

Getting a big thrill from her new green bike is Hilary Hackett, daughter of the Robert V. Hacketts of Woodale road.

Covering 18 states in 34 days Mr. and Mrs. Carl Abbott, daughter, Ann, and son, Tom, of Broadway boulevard drove 8,200 miles on a western trip that was packed full of fun!

Besides seeing all the sights, including the painted desert, the petrified forest, the Grand Canyon, Yosemite and Yellowstone, each member of the family had an own particular highlight of the trip.

Mrs. Abbott visited a friend in Los Angeles she hadn't seen in 18 years. Visiting with Mrs. John Hesselndenz, the former Mary Jane Welch, again recalled many pleasant memories of their girlhood in Detroit.

The first part was spent at Kentucky Lake with Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Whit and Mr. and Mrs. Loyall Cummings of Indianapolis, Ind.

The latter half was spent at the homes of Mrs. Guyman's sisters, Mrs. A. Pignano and Mrs. J. Buz, in Yonkers, New York, where they were entertained with family dinner parties and were taken out to dinner by several old-time friends.

The men enjoyed golfing and the women sunbathing. A dance was held each evening.

The Hacketts have just returned from 10 days at Woodington House in the Muskoka Lakes district of Ontario. They did a lot of sailing there in their new Lightning which they took with them, and Hilary learned to operate a motorboat by herself.
