

Honeymooning In Canada

Newlywed Harold Dean Hawkins will make their home in Los Angeles after a wedding trip to Banff on Lake Louise in Alberta, Canada.

The former Shirley Abbott became the bride of Howard Hawkins at a double-barreled ceremony Saturday in St. James Episcopal church. The Rev. A. Fletcher Plant officiated.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. James F. Abbott of Lakeview. Howard is the son of Ellis R. Hawkins of Los Angeles, Calif., and the late Mrs. Hawkins.

SHIRLEY wore a white chantilly lace and nylon tulle gown with a fitted lace bodice, accented by a wide bateau neckline and long sleeves. The bouffant tulle over satin skirt featured a front panel of lace. Her tiered fingertip veil of silk illusion was secured by a matching lace Juliet cap edged in satin. She carried stephanotis and ivy centered with an orchid.

Sisters of the bride, Mrs. John E. Jacobs and Barbara Abbott, were matron and maid of honor respectively. Bridesmaids were Nardis Nelson and Mrs. Gerald J. Roos and honorary attendant was Mrs. Louis P. Truesdell, twin sister of the bride. Attendants wore identical frocks of pale yellow taffeta with draped necklines accented the fitted bodices. The bouffant skirts terminated with harem hemlines. Their birdage veils were trimmed with blue delphinium and they carried cascades of yellow roses and blue delphinium.

GEORGE R. Roslund was best man. Seating the guests were John E. Jacobs, Ted N. Ferdinand and Don E. Denton.

Mrs. Abbott wore an aqua chiffon wedding and reception, following in the church parlors.

MRS. HOWARD HAWKINS

Descends from Balcony For Home Ceremony

Julie Mayo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Mayo of Drayton Plains became the bride of James Richardson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Richardson of Pontiac at the Birmingham home of her sister, Mrs. Paul Naud, 1346 Hazel, Adams Village.

The bride made her appearance from the balcony, which overlooked the living room, descended the five Willard Stalcup of the Emanuel Baptist church, Pontiac, steps to be escorted by her father, to an altar draped with white satin and banked with white gladioli.

THE BRIDE wore a floor-length lace gown of rose motif over white satin with a chapel train. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was held in place by a hand-crochet metal-finger pillow hat made by her mother. She carried white roses and stephanotis on a white prayer-book, gift from the groom.

Julie had as her attendants, sister Anzell, who wore waltz-length white nylon eyelet over yellow satin and served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were her sister, Jacqueline Mayo, and Wladia Richardson, the groom's sister, who were dressed in waltz-length gowns of white nylon eyelet over green satin. All carried bouquets of yellow roses and carnations and wore matching picture hats.

Gene Richardson was his brother's best man.

BRIDE'S mother wore a beige dress with white accessories and pink carnation corsage. Groom's mother chose a yellow frock with white accessories and yellow carnation corsage.

After the ceremony the 100 guests were received in the recreation room for the reception, where a four-tier cake made by Mrs. Robert Till, a family friend, accented the table. Assisting the hostess was Mrs. William Wilton, sister of the bride, Mrs. Mark Elliott and Mrs. John S. Mayo, Jr.
