Weekend Guests At Summer Home

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Pinney of Baryon lane, Bloomfield Hills, and children, Letitia, Tom and Susan, were the weekend houseguests of the Glenn S. Glasses of Vaughan road at their new summer home on Cedar lake, near Oscoda. Fishing, swimming, water skiing and horseback riding provided activities for the youngsters while the parents sunned and played bridge. Mrs. Glass and Bonnie returned home this week enroute to Ann Arbor for orientation period at the University of Michigan where Bonnie is enrolling for the fall semester.

Maddy, now president, with $15,000 borrowed from a band instrument manufacturer, today the camp's 400 buildings spread over 700 acres are valued at $4,000,000.

Demonstrate At 4-H Fair

"Come to the fair and stop at the Cooperative Extension tent." This invitation to Oakland county homemakers is extended by the county extension agents, Luella Nault, Mary Healy and Josephine Lawyer. A series of programs, "Especially for You" is scheduled August 6, 7 and 8 the 4-H club fair located at the corner of M-24 and Walton Blvd., north of Pontiac. Homemakers are welcome to attend a different free program each day. Mrs. Robert W. Hague, 68 Manor road, Birmingham, regional home economist with the American Sheep producers council, will be among those planning programs, and will grill several lamb cuts in her demonstration "Outdoor Taste Adventure with Lamb." There will be samples to taste after the demonstration from 4 to 5 and 7 to 8 p.m., Thursday, Aug. 7.

Sets Altar Date

September 13 is the date chosen by Judy Katherine Trumble and Alfred James Mackey, Jr. for their wedding. The bride-elect, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Charles Trumble of Rochester, attended the Rochester schools. Her fiancé, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred James Mackey, Sr., Charnwood Hills, Birmingham, is a graduate of Michigan State University where he was affiliated with Alpha Tau Omega.

Young Pianist Wins Concerto Auditions At Music Camp

INTERLOCHEN, Mich.—Penelope Ball, 17, a Birmingham pianist, won first place honors in the National Music Camp's concerto auditions, recently. Competing against 70 of the most talented music students at the camp, Penelope was selected by a faculty jury for the privilege of appearing as a soloist with the 70-piece Honors Orchestra. She will play Beethoven's piano concerto in C minor, Op. 37. The concert will be held Aug. 9. Penelope, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Ball, 1040 Chesterfield, is studying conducting and piano while at camp. She is also a member of the operetta workshop. A Birmingham high school senior, "Penny" has been accepted by the top piano teacher at Eastman for 1959. Her local teachers are Mark Wassels of Orchard Lake. The National Music Camp is the largest non-profit educational institution of its kind in the world. Founded in 1928 by Dr. Joseph E.

Linda Ball Wears Mother's Bridal Veil

After their marriage Monday in Christ Church Cranbrook, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Olson, Jr., drove to the groom's home in Long Island, N. Y., and then to Caracas, Venezuela.

DAC Is Scene Of Summer Entertaining

Mr. and Mrs. Rowland H. Starr of Old Mill road, Birmingham, entertained at dinner at the Detroit Athletic club last Tuesday, the party including Dr. and Mrs. Vinton Bacon, Dr. and Mrs. Benton Rea, Dr. and Mrs. Hubert John, and Mrs. Harold Sawyer. It was a getting together of those close friends after their various summer travels. Mr. and Mrs. Earl S. Holt of Dolores road, Southfield township, led their houseguests, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Moynihan of Miami Shores, Fla., at the downtown club's sumptuous buffet dinner.

THE BRIDE, Linda Peyton Ball, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Mueller Ball of Shirley drive and her husband's parents are the Roy Conrad Olsons of Long Island.

For the chancel wedding, with the Rev. William Norvell officiating, Linda wore a gown of Italian silk with lace and seed pearls around a scoop neckline. Soft folds of the full skirt fell into a chapel train. She wore an heirloom veil of Venetian lace, worn by her mother, and carried lilies of the valley.

COUSINS of the bride, Jacquelyn Randolph Perry was maid of honor and Ann Armitage Hamner, bridesmaid. They wore white dotted swiss frocks with puffed sleeves and full skirts with camemberts of mint green tulle. Their bouquets were of coral geraniums and ivy and they wore wreaths of ivy in their hair.

PETER Newkirk was best man. Seating the guests were Peter Barker, cousin of the bride, and Fred Ball, brother of the bride. Sotherby and Theron C. Van Dusen. Mothers of the young couple were Mrs. Ball and Mrs. Olson, wore chiffon in shades of green and a soft shade of green lace, respectively.

MRS. ROY C. OLSON, Jr.

Marian Travis Wears Imported Lace Gown

Wearing a chantly lace gown imported from France, Marian Lorraine Travis became the bride of Craig Philip Merese Saturday morning at St. Augustine church. The Rev. Raymond Collins, OSA, performed the 11 o'clock ceremony in the presence of 200 guests.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Travis of Detroit, and Mrs. Theodore Merese of Darien, Conn., and Mrs. Ralph Manuel of Bloomfield Hills.

MRS. CRAIG MERESE

THE BRIDE'S gown featured a sabrina neckline beaded with bride sequins and the fitted bodice fell to a pleated sides of lace applique then a very full chapel train. The headpiece was a beaded crown of pearls and sequins from which hung a pure silk fingertip veil. Her bouquet was a spray of white lilies surrounded by fine tulle plaiting and tied with satin streamers from which lilies of the valley hung. She carried an heirloom lace handkerchief, which her mother and grandmother carried on their wedding day.

JUDITH ELLEN Lyczynski was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Nancy Jeffrey, Mrs. Carl Pennington, Christine Marozian, Gay Ann Nickowick, Flower girl was Carol Ann Stahinski and ring bearer's partner, Debbie Travis. Attendants were gowned in white alencon lace with full skirts of shimmering colored tulle. They wore pastel colored picture hats of alencon lace and carried cascades of tinted carnations to match their gowns.

RONALD ROSS Thompson stood as best man and seating the guests were Joseph Travis, Carl Pennington, Jeff Peters, Rudolph Travis and ring bearer, Stephen Dier, Jr. Mother of the bride wore a blue silk chiffon with matching accessories and mother of the groom selected a blue and white print dress with pale blue accessories.

FLOWER GIRL wore a floor length lace gown over Nile green tulle and carried a basket of daisies. Debbie Travis wore a knee length pastel colored pink dress. A reception followed in the evening at the Whittier hotel. The newlyweds are motoring to San Francisco, Calif.
