Berkshires Social Briefs

There's not a better way to spend a hot summer day than swimming. Neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Nyquist were invited to a splash party in their pool last Saturday and it looked like a small covey island in the Nyquist's backyard.

The swimmers included the families of the Robert Hendersons, the Charlie Phelps, the Wally Stanleys, the Robert Sutters, the George Krabbs, the Harold Boudreaux, the Jim Bostwicks and the Robert Reasons. There were approximately 25 guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Yost of Parkstone Lane recently took a trip through the Smoky mountains. They spent time at the Homestead in West Virginia and went to the Greenbrier at White Sulphur Springs to watch Ben Hogan in a golf tournament.

This week Yost is on a fishing trip with the board members of the Southfield Business Mens Association. Their destination is the Blind River, approximately a hundred miles north of Sault Sainte Marie.

Home again is Christy Reason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reason, of Old Mill road. Christy spent three weeks visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. D. Reason at their summer home on Burt Lake at Indian River. While she was there her mother

Westchester Social Briefs

The Raymond Reids of Farmingdale drive spent the weekend at Darby Lake in Stuen, Mich. they were guests at the summer home of Dr. and Mrs. Harold Reid. Motor boating and just relaxing whirled away the hours.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Doran of Heathfield drive are home after spending six weeks in Spokane, Wash., visiting grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Eades. The Dorans drove up together with father returning four-weeks later allowing mother and the small fry the thrill of flying home.

It's of great advantage when friends from out of town schedule their weddings on the same day, providing there are enough hours in between. The Henry Gluckstads, accompanied by their daughter Mary Jo, drove to Cleveland to attend two weddings, one at 10 a.m. and the other 7 p.m.

Last weekend Mrs. Gluckstad and Mary Jo were hostesses at a bridal shower given in honor of their niece, Diane Hager, at her home in Elmhurst, Ill. Since the family home is in Chicago, this arrangement is best for friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Johnson of Farmingdale drive recently returned from an extended weekend in Chicago. Johnson was one of a thousand men throughout the United States, invited to attend a meeting of the National Defense Executive Reservists. They enjoyed spending time with friends, Mr. and Mrs. John Dinsley of Oak Park and seeing local sights.

Last Sunday they entertained the Arthur W. Collins and sons, Doug and David, of Grosse Pointe, at a backyard barbecue.

The Edward Schlie family of Heathfield drive have just returned from their cottage at Deerwood forest. As a side trip they enjoyed Mackinac Island and seeing the new bridge.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ruhl entertained their brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Dinsley of Oak Park and Darcy from Cincinnati.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald LaVigne have just returned from visiting her mother, Mrs. Roy Ryan, at Emmetsburg, Iowa. They also stopped over in Glencoe to visit the John Galvins.

Betty LaVigne is entertaining Nancy Dorais of Detroit as houseguest this week.

The W. Lyle Perrys of Westbourne drive have returned from visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. M. Brain of Warren, Ohio.

Mrs. Kenneth Oulmette of Farmingdale drive and daughters Laurie and Michale have just returned from Pittsburgh where they are visiting relatives.

This week Laurie is off to St. Clair, Mich. where she is the houseguest of Karen Cormier.
