Garden Club Sponsors Picnic and Flower Show

Members of the Osage branch of the WNFGA gathered under the towering Oaks in the Charnwood drive garden of Mrs. Roger Blackwood for their last meeting of the season June 2.

Co-hosting was Mrs. William Dewey. This last meeting was a combination picnic, flower show and introduction of new officers.

The picnic luncheon proved to be a "real smorgasbord" as each member brought a potluck dish, which was one of her favorite recipes.

* * *

EACH MEMBER ALSO brought a flower arrangement to enter in the "Osage Flower Show". First prize of a pair of Japanese scissors went to Mrs. Fred Trickey for her arrangement of Shasta daisies and Siberian iris.

Mrs. P. H. Hamly was awarded second prize of a pin holder container in deep blue using bachelor buttons. Third prize of green thumb garden gloves went to Mrs. Alan Yates for her display of yellow lilies, and Mrs. Ira Wilson, II, received honorable mention and a plant for her miniature trollis.

For generations the Wilsons have handed down plants of the trollis family from their own gardens and given them to their children. Mrs. Wilson's trollis display was of this stock.

* * *

MRS. THOMAS LaRUE, retiring president of the club passed her duties on to the new president, Mrs. George Robb. Other officers are vice-president, Mrs. Roger Blackwood; second vice-president, Mrs. James F. Brown; secretary, Mrs. E. A. Linder; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Warren Rockefeller and treasurer, Mrs. Charles Crane.

More are civic improvement, Mrs. Richard Smith; conservation, Mrs. Edward Hopper; education, Mrs. H. P. Pinson; flower show, Mrs. Ray Roberts; horticulture, Mrs. Michael Redfield.

Still others are hospitality and house, Mrs. James F. Brown and Mrs. L. J. Keeler; international corporation, Mrs. C. S. Maxwell; marketing, ways and means, Mrs. Frederick Oliver and membership, Mrs. Frederick Stefanski.

Others are publicity, Mrs. Alan Yates; program, Mrs. Roger Blackwood and Mrs. David DeWitt; revisions, Mrs. Warren Wood and finance and budget, Mrs. William Jaenichen.
