

19 Hills High Students to Tour Europe In Group

Nineteen Bloomfield Hills high school students leave Saturday for a two-month tour of Europe which includes 23 days in France.

The group will be under the leadership of Dean LaRue, Hills high school French teacher who scored a similar group two years ago.

Although the tour includes a visit to the Brussels World Fair and stays in Switzerland, Italy and London, emphasis is on France.

AFTER SEVERAL days in Paris, overnight stops will be made in Deauville, Saint Malo, Quimper, Nantes, Tours, Perigueux, Bordeaux, Lourdes, Toulouse, Carcassonne, Nice, Grenoble and Lyon. Those going are Sarah Bates, Phillip Berk, Gary Brydell, Joanne Deer, Robert Eoff, Sandra Nunneley, Wendy Sanderson, Robert Thym, Nancy Trowbridge, Carol and Martha Wild.

Others are William Wright, Cecelia Sepashy, Cathy Crockett, Elizabeth Kieffer, Nancy Little, Betty Boyd, Georgiane Englehart and Carol Cohagen. Doris Bulwinski will be chaperone.

La Rue has arranged with the high school to have students studying French during the tour receive scholastic credit. Birmingham Travel Service arranged the tour.

WHEN THE GROUP returns from Italy, on the S. S. Israel, to arrive in New York Aug. 22, La Rue will have 48 hours in this country before he is due to depart for a year in Cambodia.

He has been selected as an exchange teacher to teach English there in a federal government program. In return the Hills school district expects to receive a French teacher from France for the year.

Police Name New Juvenile Officer

New juvenile officer of the Birmingham police department, Jack C. Kallfleisch, Police Chief Ralph W. Moxley revealed this week.

Kallfleisch handles the juvenile program under the direction of Robert Schaul, lieutenant in charge of the juvenile division, Moxley said.

A Michigan State university graduate, Kallfleisch was enrolled in its college of police administration. The 25-year-old police officer is married, lives at 622 Bloomfield court, Birmingham.
