BUSINESS BRIEFS

For 'Curious' Folk

This quaint building at 1770 S. Telegraph, Pontiac, a half-mile north of Miracle Mile, should attract anyone with the least bit of curiosity. The Curiosity Shoppe, as it is named, features early American and colonial furniture, accessories, upholstery material, antiques, gifts and, as a special service, fine furniture. The colonial frame building has individual rooms to display furniture as it would look in the home. Owner is Michael Michaels of Birmingham. Bud Felton of Oak Park is his associate. Michaels was in similar business 22 years in Detroit while Felton has been associated with colonial furniture for several years. The store was founded in March.

Wins Insurance Honors 8th Time

Frank M. Minninger of Bloomfield township, an agent with the Detroit branch office of Connecticut General Life Insurance Co. has been named to the company's president's club for outstanding agents. This is the eighth time he has qualified.

Membership in president's club is awarded annually to Connecticut General agents who achieve outstanding records in service to policyholders and clients and in sales performances.

MINNINGER LIVES at 1905 Crosswick.

At Conference On West Coast

Bernard V. Cole, 19063 Coral Gables, Lathrup, an assistant agency manager for Mutual of New York, participated in a four-day business conference at San Francisco recently with MONY officials and leading underwriters from all parts of the United States and Canada.

Cole is taking part in the conference as a member of MONY's top club, production honor organization. He has also been selected to be the principal speaker later this month in Cleveland, where members of MONY's national field club will have a business meeting with company officials.
