Special Treat

Every girl's dream is to some day own her own pony but since that is usually out of the question, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Miller of Brooklawn drive, Birmingham, did the next best thing by renting a shetland pony for the day recently in honor of their daughter Carol's ninth birthday. Mrs. Miller interrupted the rides at noon to have a luncheon for her daughter and guests, Lynn O'Connell, Patty Pusey, Lynn Rinchart, Marlis Brancia and her sister, Judy.

MRS. ARMAND VIGNA

Vows Repeated In Candlelight Ceremony

Martha-Mary chapel in Greenfield village was the scene Sunday evening for the marriage of Ruth Elaine Cortright and Armand Vigna. The Rev. Edward Roth of St. James Episcopal church in Ann Arbor performed the candlelight ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rupert L. Cortright of Northlawn drive, Birmingham. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Vigna of Dearborn.

For her wedding, Ruth wore a gown fashioned of white chantilly lace featuring an illusion neckline, lace Queen Ann collar, long pointed sleeves and a nylon tulle skirt with lace panels in front and back.

A JULIET CAP with a drop pearl on forehead secured her fingertip veil of silk illusion. A white Bible covered with a white vinyl and staphanotis completed the bridal picture.

Helen Cortright was her sister's maid of honor and bridesmaids were Marilyn Cooper and Eleanor Field. Debbie Valli was the flower girl.

Attendants were gowned in pink organza princess style dresses with pink circular veils and bouquets of matching carnations. Debbie wore a white organza over pink taffeta and carried rose petals.

SHERMAN CONE stood as best man. Usbers were Jack Watson, Robert and Dennis Vigna and Ronald Walli.

Mother of the bride wore an orchid rose chantilly sheath and Mrs. Vigna chose an aqua organza dress with white accessories.

The young couple will reside in Ravenna, Mich., where they will both teach.

Marilyn Dickerson
