MARGARET VANDEKERCK

To Do Practice Teaching in D.C.

Margaret Jean Vandekerck, corresponding secretary of her freshman class and social chairman at Marjorie Webster junior college for the coming year is home with her parents, the Charles F. Vandekercks of Redding road.

On June 27 she will return to Washington, D. C. for eight weeks of practice teaching at the college before resuming fall studies.

Attendant Wears Floral Taffeta Gown

Kirk in the Hills was the scene for the marriage of Sally Kay Boyd and Ralph D. Springfield Saturday afternoon. The Rev. Harold C. DeWindt performed the four o'clock ceremony in the presence of 260 guests.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. George Boyd of Ayrshire drive, Bloomfield Hills, and Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Springfield of Garden City.

The bride's gown was fashioned of nylon organza featuring a fitted waistline, scoop neckline and short sleeves. A tiara of seed pearls secured her fingertip veil of silk illusion. She carried a prayer book with streamers of white stephanotis.

SUZANNE BOYD was the bride's only attendant. She wore a floral silk taffeta gown with white accessories and carried a colonial bouquet.

John Noud stood as best man and ushers were Joseph Lepak, James Ford and Stephen Gillis.

Mother of the bride wore a sea-foam green lace sheath with beige accessories. Mrs. Springfield selected a beige lace with pink accessories.

A wedding supper was at Devon Gables following the ceremony.

Judith Winchell Linda Burkman

Bound for U of M Campus

Two local girls, Judith Ann Winchell and Linda Burkman, have been chosen to attend Wolverine Girls' State on the campus of the University of Michigan June 17 to 26.

Judith is being sponsored by student council of Birmingham high school and Linda by American Legion Auxiliary unit 14. Girls will be offered guidance, instruction and actual experience in governmental procedures and its functions.

Selection to attend Wolverine Girls' State is indeed an honor that should be held before high school girls as a coveted prize, an award for excellent in leadership, civic pride, cooperation, fairness, honesty and good character.
