

Lace Mantilla Accents Ivory Taffeta Gown

Christ Church in Grosse Pointe was the scene Saturday afternoon for the marriage of Ann Daphne Aldinger and Robert Martin Beals.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Aldinger of Grosse Pointe Farms, wore a gown of ivory taffeta with banded, scooped neckline, a moulded puffed bodice and a V waistline. The skirt was semi-fitted in the front with side and back fullness.

A FINGERKIP LACE Mantilla was worn to carry out the Spanish motif. She carried a prayer book with white orchid.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beals of Los Angeles, formerly of Birmingham, asked A. Richard Shriver to be best man. Ushers were Donald Sproule, Harry Mizner and Donald Vokes.

Mrs. Donald Sproule was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. James Jenkins, Edith Burns and Mrs. John D. Tomlinson.

The bride's attendants wore chiffon gowns in shell pink, featuring softly draped necklines with deep coral drapes in back, and matching open crowned picture hats of pink horsehair.

THE BRIDE'S MOTHER chose a champagne peau de soie and lace, with matching velvet hat and accessories. Mother of the groom selected a French blue lace over taffeta with matching hat and accessories.

The newbrides are returning to the West-Coast by motor. They will make their home in Beverly Hills, Calif.
