

Jane Sweeney Wears Princess Style Gown

A princess style gown was worn by Jane Sweeney for her marriage to Lawrence A. Stock Saturday morning at St. Hugo of the Hills. The Rev. Francis Stock performed the ceremony.

Jane is the daughter of Mrs. J. A. Sweeney of Hickory Grove, Bloomfield Hills, and the late Mr. Sweeney. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Stock of Farmington.

THE BRIDE'S GOWN was fashioned of silk taffeta with chapel train and portrait neckline. A tiny crown of pearls secured her fingertip veil of French illusion. She carried a bouquet of mums centered with an orchid.

Mary Patricia Sweeney was maid of honor. Attendants were Mary Jane Delahanty, Joan Belonger, Mrs. Patrick Longe and Mrs. Dannelly Sweeney.

All wore identical dresses of princess style mint green silk organza accented by floral embroidered ribbon band with formal bow and streamers at back. They carried white carnations.

VINCENT E. STOCK served as best man. Ushers were Patrick Longe, John De Mattia, William White, and James Stock.

Reception was at the Oakland Hills Country club. The bride chose a navy blue crepe sheath trimmed in white for her honeymoon to Montreal.

Bride's mother selected a silk organza sheath with lace bodice and matching hat. Mother of the

MRS. LAWRENCE STOCK groom chose a shell pink silk with matching accessories.

Repeat Vows In Ann Arbor

Jane C. Hoeker became the bride of Alan E. Brown in Ann Arbor Monday afternoon. The double-ring ceremony was performed at four o'clock in the presence of the immediate families.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hooker of Hempstead, N. Y., wore a gown fashioned of white organza sheath and carried a bouquet of orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. Robert Lindy of Ann Arbor was the bride's only attendant and she wore a gown of yellow organza.

THE GROOM, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy B. Brown of Cedar drive, Birmingham, asked Russell Hubbard to be best man. Seating the guests was Robert Lindy.

Mother of the bride selected a grey-blue organza gown for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Brown chose a champagne silk organza and a bouquet of orchids and stephanotis.

The new Mrs. Brown changed to a navy blue silk suit for her honeymoon to Northern Michigan. The young couple will reside in Ann Arbor.
