Recreation Program Opens

WING LAKE—The Wing Lake school summer recreation program opened Monday at the school. This year's director is Bernie Walters who was a sixth grade teacher in this school this year. He is a graduate of Iowa State university in physical education and was with the Pontiac YMCA for five years. Full time assistant in the intermediate program is Virginia Dowling of Bloomfield Hills, a Junior at Albion college.

Ann DeCona, a junior at Eastern Michigan college and majoring in arts and crafts is director of the junior program and teaches arts and crafts for the intermediates. Elaine Eubanks is a Junior at Central Michigan college and majoring in physical education. She is assisting in arts and crafts and directing the physical activities for the junior program.

WAYNE MCGUIRE, BROTHER of Bill McGuire who was the summer program's initial director, is coaching the baseball team and supervising recreational play. He was graduated from Flint junior college where he lettered in basketball and baseball.

High school leaders again this summer are Sharon Thorne, Sue Hertzler and Carol Gedelman. With this large and efficient staff, it is possible to open enrollments to several more intermediates and some juniors.

This will enable parents who thought it too late for their children to take advantage of the six-week program. Contact Mrs. Allen Gedelman, 4546 Crooklee, for enrollment or go to school during program hours, 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Closing date is July 25.
