New CPA Firm Formed Here

Two Birmingham certified public accountants with the same last name, but who are not related, this week announced formation of a partnership under the name of James F. Moore & Co., 398 S. Adams, Birmingham.

The partners are James F. Moore, who opened his original office here Aug. 1, 1949. The other member is Marvin E. Moore, who began working for James Moore three years ago.

JAMES MOORE has lived here 19 years, is a Walsh college graduate, a Rotarian, and Member of HI-12, and state and national CPA associations.

Marvin Moore is a Michigan State graduate, and native Detroit.

The office formerly was located in the Wabek building.

STM Enlarges Offices Here

The 294 S. Adams offices of Smith, Tarapata and MacMahon, Inc., Birmingham architects, have been enlarged.

The firm has grown from a staff of six two years ago to 30 now. Civil, structural and mechanical-electrical engineering departments have been added since then and separate departments have also been established for field supervision, specifications and materials research.

PROJECTS completed by STM in the past four years or under contract total more than $18,250,000.

Loss Tops $7,000

Fire loss in Birmingham during May totaled $7,400, Chief Park H. Smith's monthly report shows. Forty-three runs were made by the department, 34 for fires and fire investigations.
