SOCIETY Newlyweds to Reside At Air Force Base

Christ Church Cranbrook was the scene Saturday afternoon for the marriage of Patricia Harman Jackson and Lt. Richard Nell George. The Rev. Lester L. Dobyns performed the 1 o'clock ceremony.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. William H. Jackson of Birmingham and Dr. and Mrs. Wendell George of Watertown, N. Y.

THE BRIDE wore a gown fashioned of silk organza featuring a Sabrina neckline trimmed with almonon lace and appliqued seed pearls and a chapel train. A Juliet cap of lace secured her fingertip veil of silk illusion. She carried white roses.

Mrs. George Schatz was matron of honor and bridesmaids were Jean Flores, Molly Thomas, Ann Jones, Mary White and Mary E. Hill.

Attendants wore pink sheer tafeta princess style with scoop necklines accented by almonon inserts. Crowns of matching almonon and circular veils completed their ensembles.

Malcolm George stood as best man. Seating the guests were David George, Wendell George, Jr., Paul Jordan, Frank Friedler and John Phillips.

MOTHER OF THE BRIDE selected a French blue silk organza and Mrs. George chose a willow green lace dress.

Officers Elected

New officers of the Birmingham Smith college club are Mrs. John S. Judd, president; Mrs. G. N. Hillinger, vice president; and Mrs. W. H. Merrill, secretary. Janet Everhartin received the club's scholarship for 1958-59.

On Fund Campaign

Mrs. Everett E. Fisher of Lone Pine road, Bloomfield Hills, is presently devoting her time to the Mercy Hall new hospital building fund campaign. The campaign is being conducted to raise $2,800,000 to enable the hospital to purchase and renovate an existing building into a 200 bed hospital.

MRS. RICHARD GEORGE

Following a reception at the Officers' club at Selfridge Air Force Base, the young couple left for a honeymoon to Eastern Canada. Mr. and Mrs. George will live at Selfridge Air Force Base.
