Mr. and Mrs. James Adams Entertain the B. P. Lesters

A short but pleasant trip to Birmingham was taken this past week by Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Lester formerly of the Gracefield Terraces and now living in Altadena, Calif.

The purpose of the trip was to attend the presentation of an honorary doctorate of law degree on Saturday at Union college in Schenectady, N. Y.

While here, they were the houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. James Adams of Brooklawn road and were entertained Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Distler, 881 Brooklawn, for cocktails. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Robert Friessner and Mr. and Mrs. Granville Barker. The group dined at Kingsley Inn and returned to the Distlers to view home movies brought by the Lesters.

Mrs. Adams served breakfast the next morning in the Lester's honor inviting Mr. and Mrs. Walter Reilly. A luncheon was planned for the group, before the Lester's plans left, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Friessner, 1465 Stanley.

A trip to the American hotel in Belle Harbor, Fla., was taken recently by George Whitehead, 558 Norwich, for a sales meeting where he received the salesman of the year award for Equine socks at a banquet on June 9.

Whitehead stopped in Washington, D. C., on his way down to visit his sister and family, Col. and Mrs. George Seneff and upon his return he paid a visit to former Birmingham residents, Mr. and Mrs. Don Julius of Charleston, N. C.

The final PTA function of the executive board of Pembroke school was to entertain the faculty members and their families at a potluck dinner at Springdale park, under the direction of recreation chairman, Mr. and Mrs. James Baldwin and PTA president Ray McPartlin.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson Hedgecock of Witherbee road held an open house June 16, in honor of their recently married daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. David Rae.

Pembroke school roommates of Brian Morse, son of Mrs. Frances Morse, 880 Brooklawn, enjoyed an afternoon of swimming recently in the newly installed backyard pool. The boys took time out to partake in a few exciting rounds of ping pong on the side lawn.

Luncheon was served by Mrs. Morse to Walter Lindow, Mike Robertson, Gary King, Allan Francis, Doug Parrish, Mike Wilkinson, David Kilberry, Jon Hawley, Philip Mae, Charles Lee, Owen Davis, Bob Hamrick, George Pennell, Mike Henry and older brother Craig to celebrate Brian's birthday. Minnie Morse took advantage of the pool being free to invite some of her neighborhood friends in for a quick dip.

Fifteen couples, the wives are members of the Ottipoly circle of Northminster Presbyterian church, enjoyed a potluck cookout recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Amorosi, 1678 Derby. After dinner the group enjoyed charades.

Houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Alan Otto of Witherbee road were Pack B-16 cub scout family potluck picnic was held at Southfield park June 13. Don 2 received flashlights for best attendance during the year.

Boys who became Webelos, highest rank of cubbing, are Scott McMillen, Bill Heller, Peter Hitchcock, Mike Bannion, David Smith, Mike Degener and Mark Lucas.

Turquoise and white daisies on a turquoise cloth, flanked by massive turquoise lamps, centered the table Friday for Carol Moody's and Barbara Nunnelly's graduation party.

Twenty couples spent the evening dancing. Held in the Moody home on Burning Bush, Carol had as her date Jim Van Hook. Barbara's date was Gary Johnson. Other girls from the village were: Faith Henny with Chuck Gibson, Carol Decker with Danny Davison, Gibby with Peter Waddy and Sarah Blunt and Chad Bonnet came with her cousin, Jean Blunt and Jim Duffield.

Barbara's parents, the S. W. Nunnellys of Hamilton road, and her cousins, Lynn and Cindy Rosebrough, and their mother, Mrs. John Rosebrough of Missouri, who were the Nunnellys' houseguests, helped make the party a success.

Barbara and Carol will attend Michigan State this fall.

A linen shower for Mary Ann Hausa, daughter of Mrs. Stanley Meyer of N. Williamsburg was held in the Oakland drive home of Mrs. R. B. Hall, Wednesday.

Mrs. Otto's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Cook from Lansing, who arrived in time for Ott's birthday celebration. The Ottos then journeyed to the Cooks' home in Lansing to spend the Father's Day weekend.

July birthdays can present a problem when most of your school friends are away for their summer vacations.

Stephen Bens solved his problem by celebrating his July birthday when he will be 9 on June 11. The boys arrived in time for a barbecue lunch and spent the rest of the afternoon playing baseball. Guests were Jack Kleene, Peter Cornell, Rusty Neuffert, Arthur Dawe, John Shannon, John Staff, Gary Haffe, John Winegarden, Joe McKay and Steve's brother Michael.

Stephen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Bens, 1933 Derby.

The main topic of conversation at the Ben's home this past week other than the birthday party is the recent camping trip they took. Motoring to Higgins lake, they spent the weekend enjoying the great outdoors.

A pot luck cookout was enjoyed recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Granville Barker of Brooklawn road.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. James Adams, Mr. and Mrs. John Ward and Mrs. Robert Distler. Prior to tackling the hot coals the men relaxed on the golf course.

Mary Ann will marry Robert Russell Burr of Goshen, Ind. June 29 in a noon ceremony in her parents' home. The newlyweds will reside in Goshen.

Bacon and eggs, sausages and sweet rolls were enjoyed by 29 girl graduates of Birmingham high school at 7:30 a.m. on graduation day at Gibby Slater's house.

Gibby is the daughter of the John Slaters of N. Williamsburg. She will be a counselor at Camp Kincaid in Maine this summer along with Lois Bernitt, Linda Roberson and Carol Bain. Her school this fall will be Duke university.

After graduation Thursday, Marcia McFarland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. McFarland of Bloomfield Hills entertained 16 girls with a luncheon.

The class colors of maroon and white were carried out in the decorations. White daisies were used as the centerpiece with maroon candles. A panda mascot wore a varsity sweater and the tables were strewn with pennants of the nine colleges that the girls will attend.

Marcia is a lifeguard at Barnum school this summer and will attend Bradford junior college this fall.
