French Bonnet Accents Swiss Organdy Gown

In the Grosse Pointe Congregational church, Saturday, Mary Sue Morgan, daughter of the Sidney H. Morgans of Lakeland avenue was married to Charles Wilson Burnham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hubbard Burnham of Villa, Birmingham.

The bride wore a bouffant gown of embroidered Swiss organdy fashioned with a square neckline and short sleeves. A French bonnet of the embroidery held the elbow-length illusion veil. She carried gardenias and ivy.

HER ATTENDANTS: Barbara Tucker, Jean Leeds and Judith Huntington wore white eyelet batiste with noesies green velvet sashes and head bands of ivy leaves. They carried white calliphonium and ivy.

Robert W. Morgan, brother of the bride, served as best man. Seating the guests were Royal C. Rindinger, F. Lawrence Holmes and Robert J. McLaughlin.

Couple Repeat Vows In Bronxville, N. Y.

Christ Church Bronxville in New York was the scene of the marriage Saturday afternoon of Linda Sara Gray to Geoffrey Rollo W. Barrett, performed the ceremony. The reception followed at the Gramatan hotel.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. James C. Gray of Bronxville and Nantucket, Mass., formerly of Birmingham, and the late Mr. J. C. Gray. Her husband is the son of Mrs. Lallie L. Lewis of Palm Beach, Fla., and Commander Geoffrey L. Lewis, East Greenwich, Sussex, England.

THOMAS KILGOUR of Bloomfield Hills gave his niece in marriage. She was attired in a gown of white rose petal silk, featuring a bateau neckline trimmed with lace applique. The bell-shaped skirt ended in a train. Her tulle veil was fashioned to a crown of lace and she carried a bouquet of white roses and lily of the valley.

Bessie Jane Steele was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Harriet Stevens, Judith Sperry, Katherine Morrissey, Sarah Lincoln and Barbara Bolton.

They were attired in gowns of pale green organza and crowns of ivy for bridesmaids. Bouquets of yellow roses completed their outfits.

C. S. Maxwells Tour West for Five Weeks

The C. S. Maxwells of Hylane drive have just returned home after touring the west for five weeks. Their first three weeks were spent in and around Phoenix, Ariz., where they visited Mrs. Guive Seidell, a long time friend. They also visited Mrs. Ruth Maxwell, Maxwell's sister at Paradise valley.

Then on to San Francisco, Calif., where they spent a week viewing the colorful city. While there Maxwell attended a Shell Oil Co. treasury managers meeting. They met others that traveled from as far as Istanbul, Turkey, to attend the meetings.

Many parties were planned for the Maxwells and before they left they were wind and dined at the fabulous Trader Vic's. Friends urged them to take the scenic trip by train to Colorado Springs, which they will long remember for its breath-taking beauty.

After a stay in Colorado Springs they returned to their home in Hylane drive home for new board members of the Oagee Garden club, branch of the WAFCA June 16. The group discussed the program for the new year that begins in September.

A "welcome home party" for the Larry Mackays of Brandy drive was given by the Roger Blackwoods of Charnwood drive June 6. The Mackays have recently returned home after spending the winter in Florida.

The seven couples attending the o'clock dinner included the Harold Kalfheischs, Jr., the Charles and the Helen Kalfheischs, the Elford Rolands, the David DeVits.

The Tony Spinas entertained at a barbecue supper in their garden at Squirrel road last week. Their guests were the C. Allen Harlan and children, Joyce, Jim, Joe, J. Scott and Jeanne of North Adams road.

The Spinas were among the guests of the Harold Mistlos of Detroit at a dinner party at the Detroit Yacht club and the boat race which followed recently.

Rick Wright of N. Evansdale road and Ron Swenson of Longmeadow road, joined their Adams scout troop B-4 last Friday for a week-end canoe trip.

The 13 boys, nine dads, committee chairman Harold Gregg, and scout master Robert Allison, arrived in Grayling, and slept under the stars that night. Saturday afternoon each made his own breakfast by set out on the canoe trip over the rapids of Upper Manistee river.

The group pitched tents after sitting around a big campfire receiving the day's activities. After a hearty meal Sunday they broke camp and headed home.

The George Mally home on Upton road, Thorwood, has been a "bee hive of activity" during this busy month of June.

On June 8 the Mallys attended the graduation of their daughter, Susan, at Merry high school.

The Mally's son, Michael, honor student at the University of Detroit, was presented an undergraduate honor award May 25 at the college. On June 12 the family attended Michael's graduation from U of D.

An "open house" was held at the Mally residence for Susan and Michael June 8.

The Brewsters of Harlan school, troop 981, held a tea for their mother at the Lanegan drive home of Mrs. Charles Howson, their Brownie leader, recently, assisted by Mrs. Frady Brenton, co-leader.

During their "fly up ceremony" the Brownies passed over a little white platform bridge to become girl scouts.

Following was a skit entitled "U. S." after which the 17 girls received their torch award pins.

Mrs. George Robb held a "get acquainted" coffee in her Pine Hill drive home for new board members of the Oagee Garden club, branch of the WAFCA June 16. The group discussed the program for the new year that begins in September.

Lucinda Heaton, six-year-old daughter of the William Heaton of Anslow lane, will long remember her "royal birthday dinner party" June 11. The theme centered around "her royal highness" with the invitations inviting the guests to the historic castle.

A huge gold crown centered the birthday table with streamers running to each of the eight places. Inside the crown was the birthday cake. After the games a miniature gold crown was given to Sherry Maddock, Nancy Blackwood, Mary Whiting, Mary Covert, Susy Locklin, Connie Roland, Kathy Wollong.

The Merle Welshs are newcomers to Fox Run drive, formerly of Grosse Ile. Welsh is in charge of industrial and labor relations with Hawthorne Metal Products, Royal Oak. They have a son, Warren, studying at Washington and Lee university in Lexington, Va. Mrs. Welsh is active on the board of the Women's City club.

Newcomers to W. Orchard Hill drive are the Leavitt Kouns of Hillsboro, Calif. Kouns is field manager of Edsel division of Ford Motor Co. They have two married daughters, Mrs. James Glasgow of St. Louis, Mo., and Mrs. Russell Kelly of Salina, Kansas. Gardening is a hobby of Mrs. Kouns.
