

Friends' Beliefs To Be Discussed

Ella Boulding will be the speaker at the last of a series of spring talks being sponsored by the Birmingham Friends Meeting (Quakers). Her subject will be "Beliefs and Practices of the Society of Friends." The meeting will be in the Community House at 8:30 p.m. Sunday.

Mrs. Boulding is a former clerk of the Ann Arbor Friends Meeting. She has contributed numerous writings to the Society of Friends. After the talk there will be a short meeting for worship.

Little Leaguer Lost and Found

A Little Leaguer decided to walk home from Poppleton park after a game last Thursday, but he got lost in the dark. It was 9:15 p.m. when Howard Keating, Jr., 3756 W. Lincoln, Birmingham, reported to Birmingham police that eight-year-old Jimmy Faught was not at the ball park when he went to pick him up.

Bloomfield township police found Jimmy at 9:40 p.m. in Bloomfield village wondering how to get to his home at 3707 Darlington, Bloomfield township.

A Cigarette Caused This!

Total loss was $10,500 in the fire that ruined this 1958 Lincoln and wrecked the garage late Friday night at the home of Marley Bricker, 1936 Pilgrim. Investigation by Birmingham firemen indicated a cigarette set the front seat of the automobile ablaze. The fire, reported at 10:34 p.m., caused $3,500 damage to the building, according to Fire Chief Park H. Smith, and $1000 damage to the contents. Loss of the car was set at $6,000. Damage to the home was kept to a minimum, and Chief Smith said a plastered ceiling and cement wall between the garage and home saved the house. The Brickers were asleep at the time and were awakened by firemen.

Charles Savages Attend Convention

Charles M. Savages, 662 Vine-wood, local representative of Equitable Life Assurance society of the U. S., with his wife, Jeanne, and children, Christine, 10, and Stephen, 7, spent three days last week at Traverse City in connection with Savages' appointment as the voting delegate to the Michigan State Life Underwriters' association convention held there.

Savages was voting in the convention on behalf of the South Oakland County Life Underwriters association of which he is a charter member, a former vice president and director.

While in Traverse City, the Savages visited Mrs. Savages' brother, Lawrence M. Wakefield and sister, Nell, now Mrs. Al Carroll, both residents of that city.

Bag of Cash Stolen From Cleaners

A bag of cash was missing from Chase cleaners, 615 E. Maple, Birmingham, when employees returned to the establishment Friday after the Memorial day holiday.

Police said there was no evidence of a break-in, but that the bag containing $175 to $200 was taken from a shelf sometime after the store was locked up Thursday.
