FATHER'S DAY

Gifts

Make your gift to father this year, a memorable one for him . . . May we suggest material things such as books of fiction and travel, biographies, classics and poetry . . . and, as you know, a man's desire for leather goods never wanes. So we suggest belts, billfolds, toilet kits, humidors, ash trays, brushes, picture frames and many other items in leather. Above all things be sure to see the picnic kits, fashioned by the American Thermos Company. They consist of two-quart containers, sandwich box, zipper case. Excellent for week-end picnics.

Special attention will be given to children desiring to make their purchases here. Everything will be wrapped as a gift.

Southfield Hi Notes

By JUDY CADELL

Judy Caddell, our senior who has written the Southfield Hi Notes all year, will be a freshman at the U of M next fall. Thanks to Judy for a nice job of writing, and thanks to Barbara Troy for some able assistance.

"Fascination," the annual junior-senior prom, was held Saturday from 9 to 12 p.m. While the senior class was away on their trip, the juniors got busy and decorated the gym as it has never been decorated before. Hours and hours of work went into the task and the sighs of admiration paid off when the seniors saw the transformation of the familiar gym. Shirley Brown held an open-house party before the prom. There was an after-prom party at the Jenks home given by Ellen, and one at the Zastoff home given by Jeff.

Yesterday was senior day at Southfield. The seniors received their caps and gowns, their year-books and a special issue of the Southfield Jay. Senior awards for four years of "A's" were given to Carolyn Nopola and Ruth Saro for English. Robert Ewart for mathematics, Allen Bisto, Robert Ewart, Grant Hodgkinson and Michael Larson for science and Barbara Appiequist, Douglas Dahn, Beverly Kochan, Geraldine Pittel and Ruth Saro for social studies.

Todd Grant and Beverly Kochan were awarded scholarships to the U of M. Michael Larson received his scholarship to Michigan State university. Meda Moore and Karen Santti will attend Eastern Michigan college, while Karen Larson and Ruth Saro received scholarships to Alma college.

National merit scholarships went to Robert Ewart, Jane Linee and Kenneth McGuire. Robert Ewart has chosen Case Institute of Technology, he was also awarded the Thomas J. Watson memorial merit scholarship of International Business Machines Corp.

The Southfield business and professional women's club scholarship went to Emily Stoker.

The Southfield robed choir sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "The Halls of Ivy" on the senior day program.

Cranbrook Corridor

A recent speaker at Cranbrook was Major Warwick Charlton, the originator of the project which built and sent the Mayflower II to America.

Major Charlton discussed the problems that he had in getting the ship built, such as the lack of any specific information about the ship, and then told a little of the experiences of the voyage and the reaction of the crew.

The Youth for Understanding, Michigan and Ann Arbor-Washtenaw county councils of churches, has announced that certain boys will be spending the summer in Europe as foreign exchange students.

Those going are Scott Romney, going to Germany, Jack McQuaid, who does not as yet know his exact destination, and Tom Rath, who is going to Germany.
