Madam Presidents Attend Program

"Madame Presidents" of organizations in the Birmingham area recently joined more than 700 leaders of women's groups from the entire metropolitan Detroit area for a special community-wide program at Veterans Memorial building.

Mrs. C. E. Carey of Lahser road, Bloomfield Hills, served on the planning committee which mapped out the program. Attending the dinner luncheon were past and present officers of all PTA groups, mothers' clubs, college and sorority groups, garden clubs, church groups, veterans' organizations and business and professional women's clubs.

Elected to Board

Susan Tabor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Tabor of 18280 Devonshire Road, has been elected the Class of 1961 Representative to Judicial Board at Skidmore College for 1958-59. Sue, a Freshman at Skidmore, is a Drama major.

Lace over Blue Taffeta Worn By Attendants

First Baptist church in Birmingham was the scene Saturday afternoon for the marriage of Margaret Ann Rhodes and William Earl McTeer. The Rev. Emil Kontz performed the double-ring ceremony for the daughter of Mrs. J. L. Rhodes of Devonshire, Birmingham, and the late Mr. Rhodes and the son of the E. P. McTeers of Ferndale.

The bride was crowned in chantilly lace featuring a sabbina neckline, long pointed sleeves and floor-length tulle skirt with lace overskirt falling in points.

A LACE AND PEARL head-dress secured her illusion veil. A bouquet of white roses, shattered carnations and lily of the valley completed the bridal picture.

The bride asked her sister, Mrs. W. J. Angrove, to serve as matron of honor. Myrtle E. McTeer, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid. They carried pink bouquets of rosebuds, shattered carnations and lily of the valley. William E. Stennett stood as best man. Seating the guests were

William J. Angrove and Ed L. Pennington.

MOTHER OF THE BRIDE selected a pink flowered print cotton dress with silk organza cummerbund and floating side panels of pale pink. Mrs. McTeer chose a gown fashioned of champagne lace with orange accessories and a white orchid.

Following a reception at the Rotunda Inn, the newlyweds left for a honeymoon to northern Michigan.
