Newlywed Chihans Honeymoon in Texas

Mrs. Frank Winton Elected President

Suburban Hills chapter of Women's American ORT has elected Mrs. Frank Winton of Ardmore drive as president for the coming year. Vaughan school library has been manned throughout the year by a hard-working group of mother-volunteers, under the direction of Mrs. Robert Montbach, who is herself a mother-volunteer.

On June 9 at 1 p.m. they wind up a busy season of work with an afternoon of dessert and poolside relaxation at the home of Mrs. E. R. Davies on Hammon court.

Birthdays, anniversaries, guests, births, parties are all news—call the society editor about them.

Mary Margaret Baldez wore a white rose pointe waltz length gown with matching mantilla for her marriage to John F. Chihan, Jr. Tuesday morning. The Rev. Msgr. Eugene Paddock performed the 11 o'clock ceremony in Holy Name church.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Baldez of N. Williamsbury, Birmingham, and Mr. and Mrs. John F. Chihan of Doaborn.

MARGARET MARY Carey was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Elizabeth Chihan and Marion Chihan. They wore yellow taffeta dresses with bouquets of white daisies.

David Forus stood as best man and ushers were Joseph and Michael Baldez. Breakfast was served at Oakland Hills Country club immediately after the ceremony. The new Mrs. Chihan changed to a navy blue suit with white accessories for her honeymoon to Texas.
