

The Birmingham Eccentric

Thursday, June 5, 1938.

There are moments in most lives when one is filled with a profound and moving mental and emotional feeling of being thrillingly alive... when one feels like fairly shouting his joy and happiness. It is sad that such moments do not come more frequently. This lack, then, is the real challenge! It is not life's divine pattern that one should be starved for want of joy.

Things Start with A Bang As Players Ready Carnival

No one can claim Village Players aren't starting their approaching party off with a bang. Every night you can hear the laughing and pounding of hammers and saws at the Players' Chestnut street Playhouse as Sandy Stevenson and his crew construct a fun house for the carnival event slated for Saturday, June 14 at 7 p.m.

RAY GIFFELS and Lawton Taylor will operate the photography booth while Mrs. Robert Halsted is lining up distaff members to be costumed popcorn salesgirls. Mrs. Russell Richardson is in charge of a guessing game, and George R. Ryder is managing the "Cool the Curls" game in which participants put out the cigarette of a girl on a swing. Mrs. Carl Blauman, Jr., is handling arrangements for the spaghetti dinner, and Steve Manhard and Gene Manley are building the carnival booths.

Sacred Heart Alums to Attend Candlelight Ball

Eighth annual Candlelight Ball of the alumnae of the Sacred Heart Academy is planned for Friday night at the Latin Quarter.

General chairman of the ball is Mrs. William F. Anbut. Committee members from the Birmingham area assisting her are Mrs. Norman Fredericks and Mrs. John Ortman, decorations; Mrs. John P. Morgan and Mrs. John W. Randolph, tickets; Mrs. Ralph Reed, Jr., and Mrs. Donald A. Maxwell, publicity; and Mrs. Bernard P. Costello, patroness.

Among those already with reservations are the Norman Fredericks, John T. Annases, Joseph Flaherty, Clyde Craines, Bernard P. Costello, the John T. Higginess, Mr. and Mrs. James D. Schmidt, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Mittyler, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Hay and Mr. and Mrs. J. Albert Davis.

Swansons Return From European Trip

Mr. and Mrs. J. Robert F. Swanson of Lone Pine road returned last week on the United States from a two-month trip to Europe. Their travels took them to Portugal, Spain, Italy, Brussels fair and Paris.

Their son and daughter-in-law, the Robert S. Swansons, entertained at a small supper party at their Hickory Bend home Sunday evening for their parents' return. Another son, Ronald S. Swanson, was home from Brown university for the occasion.

H. C. McQueens Entertain Guest

There was a "gathering of the clan" at the Henry C. McQueens home, on Henley drive, Birmingham, on Decoration Day. Their daughters, Cathy from MSU and Betsy from Alma, were home for the holiday. Also, their son, Hugh, who completed his six months with the National Guard in Maryland. Attending the reunion were Mrs. McQueens's sisters and their families, Ruth Gillett, the H. S. Atherton, the E. I. Corryells. Also cousins Mr. and Mrs. Dale Blackman and daughter Lois, Jean Blauvelt and Mrs. Sayle Build.

The reunion was the last of several dinners and picnics to honor the Corryells' daughter, Betty, who with her husband, Fred W. Soska, and two boys were visiting from Vallejo, Calif. They left the following day to visit Betty's sister and brother-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. H. T. Larson of Lake Mill, Iowa.

Womens Auxiliary Meet for Luncheon

Birmingham Junior Chamber of Commerce Women's auxiliary recently met for a luncheon at Kingsley Inn. The luncheon was to bring to a close the auxiliary meetings until Sept. and also for the installation of new officers. Mrs. Albert Fifth, president, presided over the meeting and ushered in the new officers. New officers are president, Mrs. James Martin, vice president, Mrs. Charles Meyer; secretary, Mrs. P. C. Kalisher; treasurer, Mrs. R. E. Reason and corresponding secretary, Mrs. Robert Wilson.
