Michele Ward Celebrates Birthday with 10 Cousins

First birthdays can be pretty exciting events and Michele Marie Ward's was no exception. Saturday afternoon she greeted 10 of her cousins who arrived with their mothers in celebration of the occasion.

Using a pink and white color scheme and a circus motif, the children enjoyed an afternoon playing games and the traditional birthday cake and ice cream. Guests included Mrs. Donald Campbell and son, Donnie, Mrs. Richard Gosson and Richard and Robert, Mrs. John O. McElroy and children, Jackie, Jimmie, Kathy and Timmy, Mrs. Gusman Welch and Kathy and Gale and Mrs. Harold McElroy and son, Kevin. Michele is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Ward, Jr., 1689 Witherbee rd.

Little Margaret Mary Kaufman, baby daughter of the Robert F. Kaufman, 1694 Witherbee, was christened Sunday afternoon at Holy Name church. Godparents were Mr. and Mrs. William Massey of Royal Oak.

Mrs. Kaufman entertained at a buffet dinner following the ceremony. Guests included the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James B. Kenalson, paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kaufman and Margaret Mary's sisters, Patty, Anne and Mary Catherine. Buffet table for the dinner was covered with pink linen table cloth centered by a huge pink carnation arrangement and sided by matching tapers.

When girl scout troop 826 from Pembroke school met recently, a special program had been arranged for their entertainment. Senior scout Lesley Greenwood and Natalie Gingenel from troop 349 entertained the girls by leading them in songs and directing games. The two girls entertain different troops as part of their duties to win award badges.

Troop 826 consists of Susan Banes, Wendy Mahan, Jacki Kilar, Susan Dieterich, Mary Lippard, Sheri Smith and Sharon Miner. Leader for the group is Mrs. Ford Banes.

Skipper Baumann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Baumann, 828 Norwich, made his confirmation at Holy Name church Sunday.

A dinner party was given in his honor afterwards by his parents. Guests included Skipper's sponsor and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. James O'Fagan and children Barbara and Michael. Also included in on the festivities was Skipper's sister, Susie.

Mrs. Paul Nelson, 958 Brooklawn, entertained her bridge group recently.

Members enjoying the evening of cards were Mrs. Ford Banes, Mrs. William Dye, Mrs. Richard Benson, Mrs. Donald Miner, Mrs. Robert Welch, Mrs. Robert Staub and Mrs. Robert Sims.

The members of the Grandfield home extension club welcomed in the spring planting season with a program on "Annals and House Plants."

Mrs. Reed Alexander, horticultural chairman of the Birmingham branch of the WAFSA was guest speaker. She explained the step by step procedure of indoor seeding, outdoor seeding, and how to root cuttings.

Mrs. Alexander answered the many questions the girls had on raising house plants and filled her discussion with many helpful hints on growing plants and flowers. The meeting was held in the home of Mrs. Richard Pippin, 620 Ridgeway. Refreshments were served by co-hostesses Mrs. John Levitt and Ralph Riley.

A recent houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Evans, 1825 Grandfield, was Mrs. Eva's mother Mrs. James H. Smalley from Columbus, Ohio.

The women took advantage of their short time together to spring shop and discuss the newest fashion. Mrs. Smalley especially enjoyed the time she could spend with her grandchildren, Bradley and Joyce.

A Trayton Manor social committee meeting was held Tuesday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gorman, 1820 Brooklawn, to discuss the coming spring dance to be called the "Golf Swing."

It will be at Glen Oaks country club on April 25 from 8:30 to 1. A buffet supper will be served in the latter part of the evening.

Present to discuss the plans were Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Beardon, chairman, Mr. Charles Hooker, publicity, Mrs. Wally Irvin, orchestra arrangement, Mrs. Orville Head, tickets and Mrs. John Lohls. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Krueger and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Miner will handle decorations.

A welcomed newcomer to 1644 Grandfield, on Feb. 20 was Thomas Savini. His proud parents are Mr. and Mrs. Louis Savini.

He was greeted at home by an older brother and sister, Frank, 7 and Barbara, 2.

Taking advantage of a little better driving weather was Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Gobecke, 1133 Woodwood, and daughter, Jane, who paid a visit to Mrs. Gobecke's mother, Mrs. James Wylie in Bay City for the weekend.

A pleasant weekend in New York city was spent recently by Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Ross, 901 Brooklawn rd.

Mrs. Ross' special interest was visiting the various department stores for fashion ideas and taking some sight-seeing trips.

Two-year-old Dougie and pet Ginger were houseguests of next door neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mansfield, 891 Brooklawn, and children, Robbie, 3, and Melanie, 1.

Brownie, troop 273 along with their leader, Mrs. Donald Nanry, 375 Norwich, attended the annual "Beds and Dolls" banquet at the Elk club in Pontiac recently.

Troop members enjoying the dinner were Lynn Nanry, Martha Weisman, Debbie Erickson, Lynn Burke, Gae Diebold, Janet Kreinke, Margie Morris, Rosemary Phelps, Maureen Reardon, Carol Johnson, Mary Beth Wilkie, Margaret Wal-
