Southfield Hi Notes

By JUDY CADDELL

At a special meeting of the senior class last Friday morning class activities for the remainder of the year were discussed, as well as problems directly involving seniors. They were told they would know the fate of their senior trip within a few days. Due to lack of interest, there is still some question as to whether or not they will have a trip.

Windowsill construction superintendents and would-be construction engineers are brought back abruptly to classes from the new addition started on the south end of the building. Ah, those wonderful busy pieces of earth moving equipment!

Couldn't help noticing the musical birth announcement on the office bulletin board. The notes announce the birth of a daughter, Kristen Elise, on March 2 at Beaumont hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Kochenreffer.

Birmingham High School Bulletins

By JULIE HOOVER and STEVE TAYLOR

Science club held its weekly meeting Thursday with some of the members remaining at school for a demonstration on ultraviolet light, and others taking a field trip to Ann Arbor where they saw a special program. New members were also elected.

Mrs. Richard's first hour senior English class is presenting a Review of Tragedy. It will feature excerpts from the Greek Medea, and Oedipus the King, Shakespeare's Macbeth and Romeo and Juliet and the modern "Death of a Salesman."

Student directors will be Dory Rodgers, Joyce Schrage, and Betsy Carroll. Adult director will be Mrs. Patton and the play will be presented Wednesday, Mar. 19.

French club attended two French movies at the Claxson theater last Wednesday night.

Dress rehearsal for next Wednesday's junior class assembly was held last Wednesday night in the gym with all acts participating in full regalia. The Irish play around which the show is based is called "Spreading the News."

Kingswood Column

By KRISTINE GILMARTIN

Winners in this year's "Acorn" contest were announced in an assembly last by the editor, Caroline Cross. First prizes were awarded to Sherry Marker, Susan Allan, and Betsy Wright for the eleventh and twelfth grades, ninth and tenth, and seventh and eighth respectively. Honorable mentions were awarded Libby Wolfe, Betty Rose, Jan McNaughton, Joan Akers, Sally Fead, and Jennifer Green. Their manuscripts and many others will be published in this year's

"Acorn," Kingswood's literary magazine.

With the long-awaited spring vacation coming up March 19, many Kingswood girls are busy with travel plans. Among those heading for Florida's sunny (3) shores are Linda Wessels, Sue Sutherland, Maud Cooper, Miles Cummings, Mary Falvey, Missy Kirk, Judy Marcherson, and Chip and Kathy Wilson.

Gwen Yntema has a wonderful vacation in store for her in Jamaica. Jane McCluskey will get her tan in Hawaii. Tim Gossett and Sharon Foster will relax at Palm Springs, Calif.

Sally Waddell, Barbara Morgan, and Kris Gilmartin all plan to go East to visit colleges.

What's for Dinner?

These romantically-garbed romans revealed at Bloomfield Hills high school last night, when the school held its first Roman banquet. Looking over the shoulder of (from left) Shirley Smith and Mary Righter, Roman soldier George Maschl and togatoing Don Heggen scan the scroll menu the girls hold. Roman garb, and the Roman menu, "from eggs to apples", a program of sights and music, and personal advice from a "high priestess of Apollo" made up the 130 Latin students' evening. Mrs. Stanley (Audrey) Zablosky, teacher of Latin, sponsored the dinner, part of the school's observance of Latin week. Committee chairmen were Jane Durham, Mary Righter and Linda Mitchell. Phil Berk emceed and Sue Fry was the oracle.

Bloomfield Hills Music Department Slates Busy Month

By ANDREE GALLAUDET and SUE SUNDBERG

The month of March will be a busy one for the music department at BHHS. Starting activities was the Michigan district choir festival March 11, at Royal Oak, where the girls' choir and the mixed choir appeared. Yesterday was the first rehearsal for the all-league concert. Representing Bloomfield Hills in the all-league choir will be Gay Firth, Judy Buchholz, Sue Jensen, Nancy Layman, Diana Schaidt, Liz Kiefer, Tony Brock, Janet Morrison, Larry Erdman, Jason Schumann, Sandy Clark, Don Heggen, Fred Pulve, Jim McGuire, Charles Brock, and the JMs.

March 18, from then on, there will be five more concerts, running through March 27. Winding up the month will be Bloomfield's own spring concert on Friday, March 28. It will be presented in three sections with the band giving one and the choir, two. First choral section will present light spring music; the second, the more serious music of the Easter season.

Yes, you can boil, broil, fry, stew or bake and you always get the same flawless perfection that only a Gas Range can give you. Now with the new automatic Top Burner and time and temperature controlled oven, you get still more convenience and spend less time in the kitchen than ever before! You just set it and forget it! At the turn of a handle you get high to low cooking heats—instantly. No worry of scorching, boil-over or over-cooking. Top Burner is controlled . . . automatically. Oven turns "on and off," safely . . . automatically. You'll enjoy the convenience and pleasure of a fully automatic Gas Range day after day. It means less work and more time for relaxation. And Gas Ranges cost less to buy, install and use.
