

Belts Freshen Up Casuals

Attractively decorated belts bring freshness to spring get-togethers of casual sweaters and skirts. There are many wide soft belts of crushed leather with draped fronts and self-covered buckles. Hair calf, or calf tanned with the colors such as tangerine, lime, orange and red, and may match skirt and sweater or contrast with them, while color-mated to a suede clutch.

The classic belt of luggage tan smooth leather with gold fastenings now is buckled down in new ways—with life-size gate hooks, trunk locks, and even padlocks and keys. Others are studded with brass nailheads and have plain brass buckles.

Sleeveless Sheath Is an Original

Model Betty Lodewick is wearing a Phil Albaum of California original. The white sleeveless sheath is topped by a black jersey type top trimmed in white. The dress is of a linen-like material. In junior sizes it's $21.95. Saleswoman Blanche Kindig at Bloomfield Fashion Shop, 1662 S. Telegraph, is showing Betty the new spring two-piece suit in grey and white plaid by Aintree Modes. Cost is $49.95.

Boys Dress Up Just Like Dad

"Just like Dad," clothes make little men of fashion go for bold colors. There are stripes in colorful madras hues, and vivid solids, too. Red is a favorite, often in combination with black.

Like their Dads, too, the boys tend to favor quiet colors in suits and top coats for dress, but when it comes to jackets, sport shirts, coordinates and other playwear, stripes and geometric patterns.

CHIFFON FAVORED
Silk chiffon is a favorite for spring scarves, in bold plaids.
